A Living Monument.

If we were to assemble all those who have been cured of heart disease by Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and who would to-day be in their graves had not Dr. Miles' been successful in perfecting this wonderful heart specific, they would populate a large city.

What a remarkable record—a breathing, thinking, moving monument, composed of human lives—that for which every other earthly possession is sacrificed.

The Miles Medical Co. receive thousands of letters from these people like the following:

"I feel indebted to the Dr. Miles' Heart Cure for my life. I desire to call the attention of others suffering as I did to this remarkable remedy for the heart. For a long time I had suffered from distress of breath after any little exertion, palpitation of the heart, and at times severe pain in the region of the heart, so serious that I feared that I could never time drop down upon the street. One day I read one of your circulars and immediately went to my drugist and purchased two bottles of the Heart Cure, and took it according to directions. With the result that I am entirely cured. Since then I never miss an opportunity to recommend this remedy to my friends who have heart trouble. In fact I am a traveling advertisement for 'I am widely known in this locality.'"

—J. H. BOWMAN,
Manager of Lebanon Democrat,
Nashville, Tenn.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money.

Lumpkin County's First Digest.

The first tax digest of Lumpkin county is dated 1833. It is now in the ordinary's office, and furnishes much interesting information to the people of today. Henry Adams was the first tax receiver. There has been a big improvement in digests since 1833. This one is made of blank paper 8 1/2 x 14 and checked off by the receiver. Not a printed letter is found on it.

Then there were only seven militia districts with names as follows: Capt. Smith's district, Capt. Kelley's, Capt. Stancels, Capt. Nichols, Capt. Rosses, Capt. Whisenbunts and Capt. Bruces.

The physicians here then were: Drs. John Hill and I. R. Foster. And among the merchants were: J. J. Logan, A. N. Bond, R. Hall, H. C. Tatum.

At that time all the property owned by a person was returned by him wherever he lived. John Holensend of this county returned one-half acre at Augusta, valued at $1,500. But few people here then returned any property. Poll tax was only 81 cents. We only know two persons whose names appear on the digest of 1833, being J. L. and Harrison W. Riley. Jess returned one poll and Harrison two, one for some one he represented, for he owned nothing at that time, but afterwards got to be the richest man in Lumpkin county.

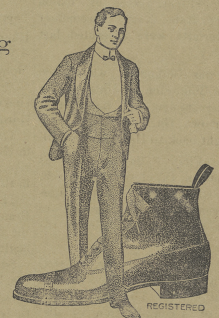

Only about half the people returned any taxes at all. The others were doubled and had to each pay 624, and maybe a little cost. The states part for that year, as certified to by the receiver, was only $584.781.

Play a Fair Game.

It is a game of give and take in this world. No matter how fortunate or lucky you may be, sooner or later trouble and misfortune will overtake you. Things may come your way for a season, and everything will look bright and prosperous, but your time will come, and no mistake. Still there are individuals who think they can always have their own way, enjoy all that is good, and give nothing in exchange for their selfishness, but that is a mistake. Then there is another kind of a fellow who gets the idea in his head that the community cannot get along without him, that no one should say anything about

Become the liver is clogged with bile, and with constipation, biliousness, headache and fever. Colic attacks the lungs and congestion diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness would be almost unknown. The Doctor's Black Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not a mild and drastic drug, but a mild and healthful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a sick child without possible harm.

The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. Because the liver and kidneys do not work properly, the poisonous acids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and various contagious results.

Timely treatment with The Doctor's Black Draught removes the changes which hurt in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively forestall the inroads of Bright's disease, for which distress in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a free, full package of The Doctor's Black Draught.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JUNE 2, 1905.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

Twenty-five of the states felony convicts expire in June.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows will meet in Augusta next year.

Russia is thinking of putting on a war tax to raise twenty-five million dollars.

Bobby Walther won the race in Atlanta last week and is still the champion cycle rider.

The president is going to visit Booker Washington's school when he comes south in October.

The late hail storm near Dublin is reported to have damaged the crops thousands of dollars.

The United Confederate Veterans will have their reunion at Louisville, Ky., on June 14 to 16.

The 11,000 graves of Union soldiers at the National cemetery at Marietta were decorated last Tuesday.

Primus Buffington, who killed Moses Buffington in Hall county seven years ago, was captured at Cedar town, Ga., last week and brought back to Hall county jail.

The First National Bank at Barbetown, O., closed last week. What's the matter? This is a republican state, besides we are under the republican administration.

Col. W. F. Findley, a well known lawyer of Gainesville, died in that city on Tuesday of last week of a complication of diseases. Col. Findley was born in Dahlonega 55 years ago.

China has boycotted the American goods, and has no use for her missionaries either. So this gives us an opportunity of using the money at home without having any hard feelings with anybody.

Hon. H. H. Perry, of Gainesville, says that he isn't going to ask a single man to vote for him for Judge. Keep your seat, Judge Kinsey, a man like that will never get elected to any office in Georgia these days.—Gwinnett Journal.

Parties who came down from White last Sunday report that Bill Hix was badly carved up with a knife on Saturday last by Harrison Winkler, both of that county. Hix received several bad gashes on the jaw, neck, side and body, requiring a number of stitches to close the gashes.

A white boy named Tow, who is in the chain gang of this county, being sent here from White county for burglary, attempted to escape one day last week, and did succeed in part. He carried the blood hounds to the branch not far from where the convicts were at work, to give them water, and instead of going back to the road he made a break for liberty, carrying the dogs with him. He was hotly pursued, but was not captured until that night, about 11 o'clock when he went to his mother's home in Commerce. The vigilant police of Commerce were on the look out for him, arrested him, and sent him back to the works.—Jackson Herald.

The three negroes charged with the murder of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Holbrook have confessed that they helped to do the deed, but they declare that a man by the name of L. C. Aycock planned and helped to carry out the whole thing. He helped kill the old people, and got some four or five hundred dollars. He gave each negro five dollars to help him. The crime was committed to get the money. Aycock denies being a part of the crime, but all the negroes tell the same tale, and all are positive that Aycock was the head man in the crime. All have been placed in jail. A special term of court will be held by Judge Russell at once to try the cases.—Jackson Herald.

Mining News.

They quit the soft belt at the Hand this week.

Work was resumed in the Crown Mountain shaft a few days ago.

M. R. and C. M. Moore are putting up a little stamp mill on the Gordon property.

The Nugget is the only paper in Georgia that gives a full weekly report of the mining operations in this section.

The parties owning the Battle Branch mine are expected here by the 20th inst., for the purpose of beginning work.

Supt. Campbell is making the Singleton pay a right nice sum extra of expenses, although but little is said about it. He stays at the mine all the time and if anything gets wrong he is on hand to look after it.

Messrs. Prewitt, Sparks, Fitts and Hamp didn't get through beating their ore down at the Barlow last week. Although a lot of low grade ore was mixed with the other, 65 tons produced 280 penny-weights of gold.

At the Briar Patch and Calhoun mines the placer diggings continue profitably without any interruption, as well as the dredge at the former. The pontoon boat, which is to be used in connection with the dredge, will likely be finished this week.

Messrs. Miller and Sovey, of the Banker Hill, were here Monday and reported everything in connection with their company as moving along nicely. We hear the whistle of the dredge every day and the sound alone gives the signal of prosperity.

The proposed new organization of another big mining company in this county by northern capitalists, mentioned in a recent issue of this paper, is not a dream. A letter received from Mr. C. R. Arnold last week, who is in Philadelphia, stated that they were getting things in readiness for it.

The 100 tons of ore being hauled from the Findley to the Lockhart for a test, will be finished and all crushed by the 7th likely. If this test is satisfactory the mill will be repaired, a motor put in and wires run from the Hand and things moving by electricity at an early day.

Messrs. Bell and Brackett commenced their work in cleaning out the old Castleberry shaft, this side of Auraria, some days ago, preparatory to putting in a pump and a hoist. The vein paid well when worked by the old method, a hand pump and a windless, and will do much better under the present proposed method.

If the new companies being organized for the purpose of operating for gold in this section will start in an economical, business like manner, just like a merchant, or any other person starting out to do a successful business, they will be sure to succeed. For instance a merchant would secure a manager first having thorough knowledge of the business, who would employ experienced clerks, just what he needed and no more. If investors would do likewise they will find it greatly to their interest. If we needed a laborer in our office we would not employ a lawyer or a doctor.

Mr. Bainbridge had the Camp Creek canal repaired, and the first of the week all the water of this stream was at the Barlow mine to be used for hydraulic purposes. It is expected that the machinery will all be placed this week. The work is under the supervision of Mr. Tom Ray, who understands his business and always keeps a watchful eye to the interest of his employers. He employs the most experienced laborers and pushes things nice, smooth and pleasant, and never allows himself to rear, curse and foam at the mouth like some of those fellows who used to come here, claiming to be miners, but knew nothing and didn't accomplish anything, causing them to worry and fret.

Cutting Scape in a Church Yard.

GADSDISTOWN, GA.,

May 29, 1905.

EDITOR NUGGET:

While the major portion of the citizens were worshipping God to the best of their ability and resources at old Coopers' Creek church, Fannin county, Mr. John Edmonson and Mr. Matt Rogers assaulted Mr. Martin and Joe Jones, sons of our estimable citizen, William A. Jones, of Union, on last Sunday. Martin is so severely cut that he could not be removed, it is supposed he will die. Joe Jones is badly cut but was removed home. It all occurred in the church house yard.

Their cannibalistic supplies, which imbued them with carnivorous symptoms were procured from one of the many groceries abounding in this region. It certainly behooves the lawabiding, God-fearing people to ask the powers that be—legislatures, governors and state officers, to enforce the law, and if we have no law sufficient to put a quicetus on the many whiskey shops and illicit distilleries to make some appropriate and enforce them. The present system in force by the deputy marshal only gives them free advertisement.

When fourth-class postmasters turn the office into a place for the sale of whiskey, wholesale and retail, the state of Georgia should come to the relief of its citizens and tax payers, if the U. S. will not.

This vile concoction with which the country is flooded at two and three dollars per gallon is not pure distilled whiskey but is principally made of wood alcohol.

CITIZEN.

A big sensation has been created in Greenville, Ga., by the elopement of Sheriff McGehee, of Meriwether county, with Mrs. Nell Hill, wife of Alfred Hill, a brother of Railroad Commissioner Warner Hill, of Greenville, says the Macon Telegraph's Atlanta correspondent.

Vice-President Fairbanks has purchased him a five hundred dollar ink stand.

France, Russia's only friend, demands that the war be ended, as no hope remains now.

If Clarke Howell and Hoke Smith don't mind in their efforts to get the gubernatorial plum, some fellow will rush in, scold the fence and carry off the fruit.

There is a man in Pulaski county advising the farmers to plow up every other row of their cotton in order to increase the price. Make room for him in the asylum.

The board of trustees of the normal school at Athens, in order to create harmony among the faculty, recently passed a resolution declaring that the teachers must all be governed by the president and they would stick to him in everything that is right. This is a good rule, one that should be adopted for all schools and colleges.

Mr. Wm. McKee was wedded to Miss Estel Harris, a daughter of Mr. Davis Harris, of Hall county last Wednesday by Rev. Mr. Marchman, of Dahlonega. The happy couple returned to Dahlonega to attend the commencement of the N. G. A. College, where they first met each other and attended its exercises together some years ago.

During the great naval battle on Saturday and Sunday between Japs and Russians, the little brown men sunk 13 ships, captured Admiral Nebogoff and 3,000 men, also six ships. Ships sunk: Battleships 2, coast defense ships 1, cruisers 3, destroyers 3, service ships 2. Captured: Battleships 2, coast defense ships 2, special service ships 1, destroyer 1. Over a hundred million dollars worth of Russian vessels have been destroyed. Later.—Wednesdays Macon Telegraph reports the number of Russian vessels destroyed to be twenty-two.

is the oldest one in Dahlonega. Will appreciate your continued patronage and treat you fairly.

In weighing the other day, we noticed that some of the scales in Dahlonega varied from half pound to a pound and a half. Some lose while others gain. And when a merchant buys a load of meat by weight and then sells it by the peck or half a bushel and loses a pound and a half on each sale, he will lose on the load by the time he gets through. The scales all balance but the weights are wrong. Every merchant should have his measures and weights examined by the ordinary and sealed. It won't cost them much, besides this, a merchant who sells goods on a credit and his measures and weights are not sealed he cannot collect a cent of it according to law if the customer wishes to take advantage of it.

Last Sunday a certain young man of Dahlonga went out about four miles into the country. He rode a bicycle. While on his way back it rained hard and he had to push his cycle through the mud about half way.

The tax receiver Calhoun refused to receive the Garnet Mining Co.'s property at $65,000. An arbitration was held and it was decided that this was enough, for no man can tell what is under the ground in the way of minerals.

Last year when it was so dry here special services were held at the Baptist church calling upon the Lord for rain. Now that we are having enough rain to interfere with the progress of farm work, the question has been asked why an anti rain meeting has not been called for the benefit of the tillers of the soil.

There is nothing more, injuries to a town or a community than a lot of tatters. We have some of them here and some times they keep pretty busy, as they take much interest in the business. About every other business and profession is taxed and we can see no reason why tatters should not have to share their part of the burden. Female tatters should have to pay double that of male tatters, because they do not only talk about the men, but each other.

We understand that some boys misbehaved very badly down at the Methodist church at this place last Sunday. While these boys were trying themselves some children changed their seats often, walking back and forth in front of the preacher, like they were stealing partners. Their parents were not there. No such acts at church have ever been reported from any missionary visiting foreign countries. Such conduct as this is a disgrace and no young man who continues it very long will ever come to any good, but instead, it will be a drawback to him the rest of his life. Isn't no one responsible for this now? It used to be that an officer was placed on the end of each bench where cadets sit and was responsible to the faculty for their conduct. Has this plan been changed? If so it is better not to force the students to attend.

Persons wanting shingles should go or write to Hutcheson Bros., Freda, Ga.

The commencement of the N. G. A. College, which begins here tomorrow, promises to be one full of interest.

The weather is getting warm here now and poor sockless country editors will not shiver with cold any more until next winter.

Joe Lockman, who was brought down last week from White by Marshal Grizzle, had his trial before Com. Baker last Monday and was bound over for illicit distilling. Waddie Roland, of the same county was also bound over.

Dr. E. P. Crawford, dentist, is at the Tate House fitted up to do all kinds of first class dental work and will remain as long as the work justifies him. The Doctor comes well recommended in doing good work at reasonable figures.

The crop prospects in Texas is more discouraging than it is in this section. Mr. E. A. Wilson, formerly of Lumpkin county of Valley Mills, writes us this week that it has been raining there for six weeks and is no chance for a crop there this year.

Ten or fifteen Episcopalians will come up from Gainesville tomorrow and hold services in the afternoon at the college, which will add much interest to the commencement exercises, as this many of the denomination have never been together at one time in Dahlonga.

The institute for Lumpkin county will be held here in July, beginning on the first Monday. Dr. Glenn, president of the college, has been elected expert for the occasion. This is a wise selection, for the Doctor is up-to-date and wide awake in all the branches of education.

David Sears, of White county, who left to keep from being arrested by Deputy Marshal Grizzle, charged with blockading, has recently been captured in South Carolina. Blockaders had just as well voluntarily "stand to the rack, fodder or no fodder," because if they remain on American soil Uncle Sam will make them do it.

Those interested have succeeded in getting a sufficient number of signers for two rural routes in this county, one up into Nimblewill and the other by the way of the Garnet gold mine. The next thing for them to do is to get the roads in good fix before the inspector comes, for the department says that they SHALL be in good fix.

The annual meeting of the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College begins today and will be open until all the teachers are elected and a vacancy of one member of the board is filled, together with such other business as may come before it. We understand that there are two or three applicants, but we do not know whether one of these will be chosen or a dark horse selected.

The Ball Ground base ball team came over and played two games here with the college team Monday. One in the forenoon and the other in the after. In the first game the Ball Ground team won the game by 7 to 2, and in the second the college team made 7 to 5. Ball Ground, Ga., is the place where the Indians used to meet, and got its name from that, and the boys mean to keep it up. Everything passed off nice and pleasant here.

The senior class of the North Georgia Agricultural College was entertained Friday evening at the home of the president, Dr. Glenn. A rather unique feature of the occasion was the wearing by each member of the class of a little card on which was written a prophecy of his future by Miss Ruth Welchel, the class prophet. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. Glenn, Miss Ellene Glenn, Major Byers, Lieutenant W. O. Matthews, Lieutenant McKee, J. T. Aycock, W. M. Breedlove, E. P. Patterson, B. F. Gray, Logan Castleberry, R. C. Smith and C. M. Harris.

Councilman Tom Smith enjoyed his first mess of beans for the season last Sunday.

Dr. Homer Head, who is well known, is permanently located here. See his card.

U. S. Deputy Marshal Wash Grizzle, of Bowersville, Ga., is on a visit to Dahlonga.

We understand that Mr. W. B. Woodward, of Dahlonga, married in Rome, Ga., on the 12th of May.

Mrs. Virginia Brooksher, a daughter of Mrs. J. B. Graham of Two Run, is on a visit to that place from Oklahoma.

The citizens are trying to get a rural route established from Dahlonga down to Murrayville and back by Big Hickory.

Magnesses trial for lunacy comes off here tomorrow. He is in bad shape and will be carried off immediately after the trial.

Mr. Charley Head was married to Miss Nellie Perlew, daughter of Mr. Cooch Perlew, last Sunday. Rev. John Rider officiated.

Always say a good word for your town. If a person can't do this they had better move out and let some one take their place who will.

Mr. Barnett, who recently purchased the Stewart house and located in Dahlonga, is repairing his fences and will later on make some additions to his residence.

Two of Dahlonga's leading merchants went fishing Tuesday as hot as it was and caught a quart of buttermilk for their suppers and borrowed a gourd to drink it out of.

Last Sunday as John Sissum was returning home from Oak Grove church with four of his sisters in a double seated buggy the animal took a notion of increasing its speed coming down the hill beyond Cane creek, and the result was one or two were slightly injured and tearing up the seats and bed of the buggy.

Mr. Albertson, who recently bought two or three hundred acres of land in the upper portion of this county and located, has purchased a large number of fruit trees for his orchard and ordered one hundred thousand feet of lumber for buildings. It does us good to report the advent of such progressive men into our county. We hope to have enough of them to drive out all the drones soon, so prosperity can spring up all over this country.

Prof. Davis, who has charge of the agricultural department of the N. G. A. College, is not only making interesting and profitable experiments on the farm but is meeting with success in raising chickens with an incubator. His trusty negro succeeded in hatching forty-nine chickens out of sixty eggs recently with the incubator. Some negroes are pretty good in raising chickens from the roost, but this one finds it is more profitable to use the incubator.

We understand that Mr. Massey, an old gentleman who resides in this county near the line of White, has recently become crazy. It is believed by some that the old gentleman has near, if not a thousand dollars, buried some where on his premises, but he won't tell anything about it, and it may be that he will pass away without recovering his mind, and the hard earned money of his many years labor will be lost to the world and do no one any good.

Lower country visitors are already writing here to know if they can get accommodations in Dahlonga for the summer. Our citizens interested should prepare for all who desire to come and then let it be known by using a little printers ink. Our town would be full of summer visitors, but when people will sit around and growl about dull and hard times and not spend a nickel in any effort to build up the town we can't expect anything. Talking about a railroad. How many here have spent as much as a copper in trying to get one built to Dahlonga? Don't all speak at once.

If you wish a nice refreshing drink of Coca Cola drop into Garland Stricklands.

Just received a big lot of shoes. Price right. Any kind, size or quality. M. J. WILLIAMS.

If there is any one who wishes happy dreams, let them subscribe for THE NUGGET. It will set them all right.

If you want a good suit, a nice suit and a cheap up to date suit of clothes, drop into the store of T. J. Smith & Bro.

Farm labor is very scarce in this county, causing our farmers to have to work hard and put in extra time in order to pull through.

At Cost.—I have about 50 pairs of ladies' and men's low cut shoes that I will sell at cost. No profit added. Come and see them.

M. J. WILLIAMS. A goodly number of Dahlonga citizens were out at the college chapel last Friday evening to hear Col. W. P. Price deliver his interesting lecture.

We understand that Dr. Cavender, of Hall county, has a notion of buying property here and permanently locating. The gates of Dahlonga stand wide open to all such men as Dr. Cavender.

The sham battle in the general program of the college was inadvertently left out last week. This interesting part will take place on Tuesday afternoon. Gov. Terrell will inspect the cadets that day, and the University committee composed of Hons. Clark Howell, J. T. Newton and A. L. Hull will be present.

Last Sunday was the regular monthly meeting of the colored Baptist church at this place. They were here from the country for miles around and everyone sat and listened to the preacher with a great deal of interest—no disturbance whatever. This should make every white person misbehaving at church feel ashamed of themselves.

The other day when our friend, Mr. Wm. Fisher, of Columbus, O., was at Gainesville, on his way to Dahlonga, he hired a horse and buggy and started for Dahlonga in the afternoon. After traveling awhile he met a fellow and asked how far it was to Dahlonga, and when the man told him that he was only four miles from Gainesville, Mr. Fisher turned around and drove back and waited till morning. He has been used to street cars and railroads, traveling fast and could not make the proper calculation for a dirt road.

Dr. Keith, of the U. S. geological department, arrived in our city latter part of last week. The Doctor made a trip here last fall for the first time and was so favorably impressed with the mineral resources of this section that he stated that he would be back again. Since that time congress has made a special appropriation for the making of a map of the mineral belt, which will enable the Doctor to spend more time here than he first anticipated. The Doctor left on Monday. Three or four other members of the department will be here later on and remain for some time.

Our sanctum had a call from Mr. Wm. Fisher, of Columbus, O., last Friday. He has been a weekly reader of THE NUGGET for several years and never fails to come to see us when in town. We all like to see Mr. Fisher in our midst, for he always makes everything pleasant wherever he goes. This gentleman has large mining interest here, and while down at Chattanooga, thought that he would come and take a peep at things in and about Dahlonga. He is one of the directors of the Consolidated Co. and as the general manager makes monthly reports to the directors Mr. Bainbridge knows exactly what is going on. The gentleman is very cheerful and is well pleased with the management of Mr. Bainbridge and his superintendents, feeling confident that success will attend them.

Mr. Will Worley went to Gainesville last Monday with his mother.

FOR SALE.—Fine milch cow for sale. Apply to Alfred Huff, Half Way, Ga.

Dahlonga will be visited next week by Gov. Terrell and other prominent gentlemen.

THE NUGGET contains more original matter and local news every week than any other paper ever published in Dahlonga.

Prof. Paul Abbott, of Dawsonville, was up last week shaking hands with his many friends in Dahlonga.

People have been coming to Dahlonga for several days so as to spend some time in our pleasant little city and take in commencement.

On our first page you will find the transfers of property made in this county, beginning Jan. 1, 1903, which will be of interest to many of you.

G. D. Bruce keeps a fresh supply of groceries on hand which he proposes to sell you at such figures as to make it to your interest to trade with him.

If there is anything you need, generally kept in a first-class store, W. P. Price, Jr., has it, who would be pleased to have a visit from country citizens while in town.

Prof. Calloway has a very interesting program for the closing exercises of the Graded School tomorrow beginning at 10 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

Some of the young ladies, having sweethearts, have already commenced looking sad on account of the expiration of the present term of the college being so near, and the boys having to return home.

Our sanctum had a pleasant call one day last week from Prof. Vickery and Mr. W. B. McMillan, his brother-in-law, from Hartwell, Ga., was accompanied to Dahlonga by his father. The son used to go to school here. Both are patrons of THE NUGGET and we are always glad to see them in our midst. They returned to their homes this week.

Dr. Glenn, president of the N. G. A. College, is wanting an industrial school for the benefit of the young ladies of this and other sections, established here, and is moving in that direction now. The Doctor is a great worker in educational matters and we hope and believe that he will succeed. This would be a very important addition to the college.

The little twenty-two pistol which was brought into the Justice court here last week, was laid away by a boy twenty-five years ago or more, who has since become a preacher. Little did he think then that it would cause any one trouble. Pistols, though some of them are small, are dangerous things to handle. We understand that there are other boys in Dahlonga, who are not yet out of their teens, owning pistols. They had better take warning and get rid of them before they get into trouble.

The postoffice department makes a request for all parties writing letters to have their return cards plainly written or printed on the corner of their envelopes so in case they are not called for that they may be returned to the writer instead of sending them to the dead letter office at Washington City. So, in order to accommodate all persons getting their mail at Dahlonga, the following business men here have had envelopes printed with the return card on them and a blank space left for you to write your name, and with this addition your letters will never get lost, costing you no more than blank envelopes do of the same quality. These are the places to find them: Drug Store, J. F. Moore & Co., G. D. Bruce, B. R. Meaders & Sons, T. S. Littlefield, W. H. Jones, W. P. Price, Jr., M. J. Williams, H. D. Gurley.

The town base ball team will play against the college boys this week.

Some betting was done on the ball game here Monday, causing several dollars to change hands.

We print weekly time reports for mining companies. Do you want any? Then you can show at a glance what each man has worked during the week.

We were glad to see Mr. John Jackson on in town last Saturday, being the first time he has been able to get out since he was hurt down at the Consolidated mine.

Collector Richardson and his brother, of Gainesville were caught out in the storm last Tuesday a few miles from Dahlonga. They drove into a mining cut and had no accident.

In some institutions of learning, students have to make a certain mark in their studies or withdraw from the athletic club. Such a rule would be a good one here, and then no student would fall behind with his studies on account of the ball and bat.

Persons who have seen Griffin, say that the college farm at Dahlonga will exhibit better than each of the others. This is quite a compliment to Prof. Davis, who has charge of the agricultural department of the college here.

The closing exercises of the colored school here takes place next Saturday. We learn that the pupils have made much improvement. The teacher, Mariah Haywood, has been in charge of this school some five or six years, which alone proves that she is discharging her duties.

Our subscribers at New Bridge failed to get their NUGGETS last Friday and have not seen them yet. Where they have been sent to we cannot find out. The paper mail from Atlanta has been very irregular for several days, the Constitution and Journal having been behind a day or two. Last Sunday's Constitution reached Dahlonga on Tuesday.—Later. Last week's NUGGETS went from Auraria on Wednesday marked "misent."

Always heretofore the students here would turn in dirty guns about the close of the session of the college when there was no time to punish them. This time Maj. Tilson adopted a new plan. The other day he examined the guns and found many of them unclean. Every boy having such a gun was put under arrest until it was put in good condition. There never was such a sale of oil and rubbing and scrubbing of guns in Dahlonga in one day before.

Dahlonga was visited by an unusually heavy wind storm last Tuesday between six and seven o'clock from the west, lasting for some little time, looking every minute like it would turn into a cyclone. Strong buildings shook from top to bottom, causing much alarm among many of our citizens, but fortunately there was no damage by the wind, which ended by a light rain. During the time a little building down at the Crown Mountain mine in which gold was retorted, was set on fire by lighting and burned up in a few minutes. At places in the county apple orchards were partially destroyed and many of the trees of the forests uprooted.

On the 20th ult. an illicit distillery was destroyed in White county. A plain road led from this distillery by old man John Nix to his son Tom's, which caused both to be arrested and brought before Com. Baker at this place. Monday night the old man swore that "I didn't even know anything about the place and was turned loose. Tuesday morning West Nix, who lived a little farther on, rather than have an innocent man punished, swore that the concern belonged to him. So Tom was released, and the three all returned to their homes. But later on West Nix will likely be entertained by the Commissioner.

CURIOUS OATHS.

Old Ways of Swearing to the Truth of One's Statements.

When a Chinaman swears to tell the truth he kneels down, and a china saucer is given to him. The following oath is then administered: "You shall tell the truth and the whole truth. The saucer is cracked, and if you do not tell the truth your soul will be cracked like the saucer." When he breaks the saucer. Other symbolic variations of the Chinese oath are the extinguishing of a candle or cutting off of a cock's head, the light of the candle representing the witness' soul and the fate of the cock symbolizing the fate of a perjurer.

In certain parts of India tigers and lizards' skins take the place of the Bible of Christian countries, and the penalty of breaking the oath is that in one case the witness will become the prey of a tiger and in the other that his body will be covered with scales like a lizard.

In Norwegian courts of law the prelude to the oath proper is a long homily on the sanctity of the oath and the terrible consequences of not keeping it. When the witness is duly crushed by the sense of his fearful responsibility the oath is administered while he holds aloft his thumb and fore and middle fingers as an emblem of the trinity.

In an Italian court the witness, with his right hand resting on an open Bible, declares, "I will swear to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth." The Mohammedan takes the oath with his forehead reverently resting on the open Koran. He takes his "Bible" in his hand and, stooping low, as if in the presence of a higher power, slowly bows his head until it touches the book which to him is inspired.

In certain parts of Spain the witness when taking an oath crosses the thumb of one hand over the forefinger of the other and, kissing this symbolic, if primitive, cross, says, "By this cross I swear to tell the truth."

WILLS OF LUNATICS.

The Queer Requests That Are Made by Insane Persons.

One of the manias which are evidenced by the insane is a desire to make a will. Of course these documents are waste paper as far as the law is concerned, but the attendants and doctors treat these documents with the greatest respect in order to humor the deluded creature.

Some of these wills would be amusing if it were not for the sad condition of mind of which they are the outcome. One man confined in an asylum left all his money to the mikado of Japan on condition that this dignitary should visit the grave of the testator once each year and plant chrysanthemums upon it. The remainder of the estate was to be handed over to an imaginary charity called the Brothery Love and Bounty society.

Another inmate in a Parisian asylum left a will devising the whole of his estate to the possessors of Roman noses residing in and near Paris. The reason for this was that he had rather a handsome nose of this shape and was constantly admiring it. A similar bequest was that of a patient who left his property to an attendant because he possessed one of the ugliest nasal regions the testator had ever seen.

One man, who was afflicted with the mania that he was sane, but confined in the asylum unjustly, devised a will leaving his money to the commissioners of lunacy to enable them to engage a large staff of men for the purpose of visiting asylums and ascertaining if any were confined in them without reason.—New York Times.

Distances at Sea.

That man who laughed at who on his first voyage said that the ocean did not look so large as he supposed it would, but he was not alone in experiencing disappointment. The horizon at sea gives no idea of the limitless water beyond. A sea captain declares that the average landsman can see not more than ten miles from the ship in any direction, and it would have to be a moon or some stationery object for him to be able to distinguish it. The masts of a ship are said to be visible to the naked eye not more than five miles.

Jenny Lind as a Child.

Jenny Lind as a child of three years was the luck of her parents' house. As a girl of nine she attracted the attention of all lovers of music and entered the Stockholm conservatory as a pupil. Her continuous studies at so tender an age caused the sudden loss of her voice, and for four full years she pursued her theoretical and technical studies, when suddenly the full sweet sounds came back to the delight, as every one knows, of thousands for many years.

APPLICATION FOR LEAVE TO SELL LAND.

Georgia, Lumpkin County. Notice is hereby given that after four weeks notice, pursuant to section 2546 of the Civil Code, I will, on the 26th day of June, 1905, at 12 o'clock, M., at Chambers, in Cleveland, in White County, Georgia, make application to his Honor, J. J. Kinsey, Judge of the Superior court of said county, for an order granting to me leave to sell at private sale, lot of land number (102) One Hundred and Sixty-two, lying in the Eleventh District of originally 1141 but now Lumpkin county, Georgia, as the property of the estate of John Fields, deceased, for the purpose of re-investment. The reasons therefor, being to re-invest the proceeds of said sale in property, which will bring to the estate of said John Fields a larger income than that produced by said land.

This 17th day of May, 1905.
E. E. CHESNEY,
Guardian of John Fields.

A Waste of Time.

The average girl of the farm has not the right idea of what it means to be accomplished. If we speak of one having an accomplishment, we wish to be understood as meaning that the one spoken of has perfected some requirement. To be accomplished does not imply that we must sit at all the different graces of society; young girls waste much valuable time in obtaining a fire-fly glow of knowledge of everything. Custom says that girls must, whether they have any talent or not, learn to play the piano; sheet after sheet of music is furnished them, dollars are paid for instructors; hours are devoted to practice, and how many succeed in making good players? At any pleasant home gathering, at a concert or church service, how many girls in the neighborhood can play for the occasion? The average girl takes up piano playing simply for the reason that she must know a little something of music; she must be able to run over the popular melodies; but beyond this, she has no ambition. Time is wasted in absorbing the beautiful art instead of acquiring the art. In the same manner we find much valuable time wasted gaining a little smattering of the languages; also voice culture, painting, needle work and many other things that go to make the definition of the so-called accomplishments. Usually an accomplished girl can paint a little, play a little, do a little needle work, but not one of them can she do well enough to earn money. This is one of the girl's greatest faults, that she does not devote sufficient time to learn one thing perfectly. All young people should early learn to appreciate the great power resulting from acquiring the art of application. Let the young people do that for which they have a talent and a liking, and let them do it thoroughly, and not be content with a little smattering.—American Farmer.

Reliable Remedies.

The despised onion is one of the best remedies for cold on the chest. It should be sliced with sugar and simmered slowly in the oven or on the back of the stove until a syrup is formed and the slices look clear. Raw onion is excellent for insomnia, caused by over-excitement of nervousness.

Lettuce and celery are both good for the nerves. Cabbage is said to contain phosphate, and when properly cooked is useful for enriching the blood. It should be boiled fifteen minutes in clear water, then drained and allowed to steam in a double till tender. Season with butter, pepper and salt. Sage is used to induce perspiration, and is made into a strong tea for that purpose. A good remedy for colds, sore throat, quinsy, etc. A gargle of the tea in which has been dissolved a little borax is very useful for sore throat.

Catnip tea, an old-fashioned remedy for colds, colic of infants and nervous headache, is, like many other old things, too good to be entirely discarded.

The common plantain is good to relieve severe pain. Boil a handful of the leaves to make a strong decoction. Put a drop or two in the ear for earache. Stir in corn meal to thicken for a poultice for sprains or bruises. Simmer the bruised leaves in sweet cream to make a very healing salve. Simmer arctic flowers in mutton tallow for another good salve.

Florida. R. E. M.

Georgia, Lumpkin County. To all whom it may concern: Milla P. Cannon, widow of John C. Cannon, deceased, has in due form applied to the undersigned for a year's support out of the estate of said deceased, and appraisers having filed their report of the same in my office, all persons are hereby notified that I will pass upon said application and petition on the first Monday in June, next, at my office.

This 2nd day of May, 1905.
G. G. EVANS, Ordinary.

For biliousness, headache, dyspepsia take Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup.

If you want to interest your boy in farm life, so that he won't run off to the city as soon as he can, give him a colt, calf pig or piece of land to attend to for himself. Don't take the animals away from him as soon as they are ready for market, but allow the boy the proceeds. Also let him learn how to do his own bargaining and sell his own stock. If this is done, nine times out of ten he will not only remain on the farm but will learn to like it better than any other place. Nothing like self-interest to stimulate one's ambition, and nothing like the prospect of bettering one's condition financially to hold one to his job.—Ex.

The Hangman's Rope.

The rope which was used to-day in the execution of John Henry Young is just an ordinary hemp rope, but a wonderful story of tragic interest would be revealed, could it but speak. Nineteen times has one end been knotted around the gallows beam, and nineteen times has the noose been placed around the neck of a condemned criminal.

This rope is the property of W. A. Stewart, of Cleburne, ex-sheriff of Johnson county. Mr. Stewart had the rope made in St. Louis in 1898, to be used in the execution of John B. Shaw, a white man. The rope was made by a German and was hand twisted, the very best quality of hemp obtainable being utilized in its manufacture.

The rope is eighteen feet long and cost Mr. Stewart $12.50. The noose made to go around the neck of Shaw has never been changed.—Houston Post.

Seven prisoners were carried to the chingang last week from Fannin county.

On Tuesday, a week ago, when the wind blew so hard at Dahlonega a cyclone destroyed a large business house at McCay's, Tenn.

A little one-year old child of Mr. R. L. Gaissert, of Atlanta, died a few days ago from the effect of a mosquito bite.

Mr. Graves, of the Atlanta News, ought to be in the race for governor so as to be in company with the other newspaper men of Atlanta.

Rabun, Towns, Union and Fannin are the only counties in Georgia which cattle can be shipped under the United States quarantine laws to the market of the north or west.

Some of them are giving President Jordan of the Cotton Association, credit for the small advance in cotton. The main cause of it is the present sorry prospect for cotton crop.

In reference to the gubernatorial candidates, as well as the prospective ones the Brunswick Journal headed it this way last Saturday: "Hon. Hoke Smith will run," "Col. Estil is greatly amused and is not ready to say yet," "Hon. Dick Russell will be in," "Hon. Joe Hill stands pat," "Hon. Jim Smith sawing wood."

The thieves of Atlanta have adopted a new plan of robbing. They go to a man's room and fix him. The other night, after R. M. Parks, of that city, returned to his room, two cut-throats, who were concealed behind the door, grabbed the man, gagged and dragged him and then relieved him of all the money he had and a pistol besides.

A negro woman got permission to preach on the streets of Commerce, Ga., last week. Judging from what the News man wrote, she must have been a long ways off from the Lord, for she prayed loud enough to attract the attention of a blind and almost deaf mule, and its owner was compelled to sit and listen to her in the hot sun for an hour and a half, before he could get this mule to travel.

Ever since the ninth district republican convention was held here and the ink slinger of the Cleveland Courier was elected as a delegate to represent White county and then turned around and opposed Mr. Ashley, the nominee of that party after helping to nominate him, he has been as fretful and cross as a little child after having eaten green peaches, and squalls out every time we have referred to the matter, causing him to act evasive and low down towards us every opportunity he has, by referring to a false charge made against us here besides trying to injure our business by notifying us officially that Mr. Tom Cantrell of that county, had refused to take THE NUGGET out of the Cleveland office, of which he is postmaster, when it was a lie of his own manufacture, causing Mr. Cantrell to have us send his paper to Kinsey postoffice. Such a sorry, deceitful fellow as this should not be allowed to have charge of a postoffice. In speaking of him heretofore, not knowing any better we treated him as a gentleman, but find now that this so called man seems to be a jackass with a skunk's tail who will use it every time he has a chance. So we will dismiss him from our mind after this week, for a person having anything to do with a carcass is sure to catch some of the stench on him.

GRADUATING CLASS OF THE N. G. A. COLLEGE.

Commencement Notes.

Saturday night when people entered the college chapel they were impressed with the fact that there were more visitors present than had been here at the opening exercises in many years. The music given by our own North Georgia Agricultural Band was delightful. The exercises were the selections rendered by nine members of Sub Freshman B Class. These were: Chas. Bonnett, Dover Bell, John Black, Miss Nell Cavender, Walter Collier, Dauphin Drake, Charles England, Miss Mary Johnson, Miss Ara McKee. The selections were all well delivered.

On Sunday the commencement sermon was preached by Bishop C. K. Nelson. It was especially for the young ladies and was very excellent. At 8:30 p. m. the Episcopal held a service at the college chapel. Sunday night Bishop Nelson preached another fine sermon.

Monday morning the Sub Freshman A Class had their declamation contest. The following rendered selections were: Miss Pearl Anderson, G. N. Bynum, M. C. Williams, Chievious Davis, Paul Drew, Julius Ekan, Miss Maud Jackson, Miss Fannie McGuire, W. A. Simmons, W. H. Tatum.

Monday night the musical entertainment and silent drill was much enjoyed by a crowded house. During the exercises, Terrell and Hon. Clark Howell came in the chapel amid rousing cheers.

After the exercises Monday night the Alumni banquet was held at Prof. Gaillard's home. It was very much enjoyed by the twenty Alumni present.

On Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock the Alumni Association met in annual business session. Prof. Boyd was re-elected as president; Col. Bryson as treasurer; Miss Fannie Gaillard was made secretary; Mr. O. Palmour was elected as orator for next commencement; Mr. Pitzer of Washington, Ga., was selected as alternate orator; Mrs. Crisselle was elected essayist and Miss Maggie Crissan as her alternate.

At 10:30 a. m., Tuesday, Freshman election contest occurred. The following representatives gave selections: D. P. Berry, W. A. Bragg, W. E. Branch, Miss Annie Byers, Jeff Findley, Miss Lizzie Shed, S. J. Smith, O. T. Wright.

Following the Freshman speaking, very eloquent and pleasing addresses were given by Governor J. M. Terrell and Hon. Clark Howell. Their every word was gladly heard by all friends of the N. G. A. College. They were eloquent in their praises of the great and noble work done by the school. And practically pledged their sympathy and support of any reasonable appropriation for which the school may ask. Governor Terrell spoke in the highest terms of Dr. Glenn, the college president.

At 3 p. m. Tuesday, Gov. Terrell and party reviewed the battalion and they expressed themselves as much pleased by the showing made by the cadets both in the drill and in the sham battle which immediately followed the review and drill.

Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. The annual champion debate was held. The subject was: Resolved, that it is not wise to exclude Chinese laborers from the United States. The affirmative was championed by G. M. Barnes and O. T. Wright, of the Phi Mus; the negative by E. P. Patterson and W. S. Gaillard, of the Decora Palstra Society. The decision was rendered in favor of the negative. It was the first time the Phi Mus had lost in seven years.

Wednesday morning at 10:30 the Sophomore declamation contest occurred. Messrs. Alvin Gaskins and Grover McKibben rendered excellent selections. Following this came the Junior orations by Messrs. W. L. Ash, W. L. Jackson and W. S. Gaillard. And immediately following this Hon. W. G. Brantley, of Brunswick, Ga., delivered the literary address. His theme was, "The importance of our citizenship." His address was eloquent and forceful. Indeed it was a rare intellectual treat.

Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. the ready speakers contest took place. Messrs. W. S. Gaillard, E. P. Patterson and Rufus Byers entered this very interesting contest. The subject discussed was: "Effects of the Panama Canal." The decision of the judges gave Mr. Byers the medal, a beautiful medal given by Mr. W. D. Upshaw.

Wednesday night the graduating exercises took place. The following delivered orations: J. T. Aycock, B. E. Gay, W. O. Matthews, E. P. Patterson, Miss Ruth Wheelchel read an essay. Rufus Byers being first honor, delivered the Valedictory address, which was a splendid effort and very interesting. The others did well.

The following were given diplomas: Rufus Byers, W. P. Lunsford, Dr. F. C. Wilson, Miss Ruth Wheelchel, E. P. Patterson, B. E. Gay, R. E. Smith, W. L. Ash, W. O. Matthews, C. M. Harris, W. M. Breedlove, L. R. Castleberry, H. D. McKee, J. T. Aycock. Prizes awarded during commencement were as follows: 1st B, Charles England, 2nd B, Ora McKee. 1st A, Fannie McGuire, 2nd A, Paul Drew, 1st Fresh, O. T. Wright, 2nd Fresh, S. J. Smith. 1st Soph, Grover McKibben, 2nd Soph, Alvin Gaskins. Junior oration, W. S. Gaillard. Best ready speaker, Rufus Byers. Target practice. — Bord. Latin, W. L. Ash. Mathematics, Alvin Gaskins. On music, Miss Irene Moore, Fannie McGuire, Pearl Anderson. In agriculture, W. E. Branch two, W. A. Sims, Alvin Gaskins, J. T. Aycock.

Last Friday Tax Collector J. L. Galloway, of Fannin county, and his brother George, were killed by flagman, R. T. Ewing, on the train at McCays, Tenn. The latter was cut several times but will recover.

Rev. J. D. Woodward, who was convicted of bigamy in Jackson Superior court, and is in jail pending action for a new trial, is not a very expensive prisoner, as he has not eaten but two or three crackers in three weeks. There is nothing like it when he gets used to it.

About 75 lots of unreturned wild land was sold for its taxes on Tuesday. The lowest priced lot sold was $1.05 and the highest $62.

Warren Sallins, Drew Hollifield and Merriot Lance were locked up Tuesday afternoon and required to pay one and cost each. Cause: Too much liquor.

APPLICATION FOR DISMISSION.

Georgia, Lumpkin County. Whereas, W. J. Burt, administrator of John P. Corn, deceased, represents to the court in his petition, duly filed and entered on record, that he has fully administered John P. Corn's estate. This is therefore to cite all persons concerned, kindred and creditors, to show cause, if any they can, why said administrator should not be discharged from his administration and receive letters of dismission on the first Monday in July, 1905.

Mr. Floyd Duckett, who visited his home here this week from the marble works in Pickens county says that laborers are scarce out that way. A party has been sent to Chattanooga to see if he can get any hands. Parties write us from Ducktown saying that there is plenty of work out there for all who come and want it.

On Monday night, it being commencement week, Jim Swinger went out to John Castleberry's on a visit and was talking to the woman of the house very pleasantly. The husband came in very unexpectedly, ordered Jim out, and by refusing to go received a knock down. John afterwards sold out his furniture and left for other parts. All colored.

Local News.

Miss Maud Gurley has returned from a month's visit to Anniston, Ala.

Persons wanting shingles should go or write to Hutchinson Bros., Freda, Ga.

Mr. Call Strickland, of Swainsboro, Ga., took to the commencement here this week.

The price of eggs here rise and fall like the tide almost. They went up to 15 again last week.

The daily mail from here to Porter Springs commenced last Thursday. Hereafter THE NUGGETS for Porter will not be mailed until Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Castleberry, of Gainesville, have been visiting here this week. Mr. Castleberry is the president of the First National Bank at that place.

Messrs. W. B. McAdams, of Kentucky, and John L. Murray, of Tennessee, were in our city last Friday to see about buying some second handed Huntington mills.

Large photographic views of the Bunker Hill dredge boat, Dahlonega and Cane Creek falls for sale at this office at 25 cents each. Postage two cents extra. Also other mining views.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Tom Lee, which occurred in Yahoola district on Wednesday last week. She had been a member of Yahoola church for a long time and was about 76 years of age.

What about it? We were informed the other day that parents residing in Dahlonega, persuaded one of their children not to go to school—the others didn't want to—proposing to buy it a dress if it wouldn't go.

We saw a woman last week buy a hoe and start out to her country farm. She does not plant any cotton and therefore has no one trying to boss her about this product, but expects to reduce the acreage of weeds, and that at once.

Rev. W. C. Taylor, during his absence preached the commencement sermon of the Ogletheorpe High School, and the local paper makes the following comments: "The services were conducted by Rev. W. C. Taylor, of Dahlonega, who delivered a strong and edifying sermon on 'The Man With a Message.' Lack of space forbids a more elaborate mention of Mr. Taylor's sermon. Suffice it to say, it was one of the greatest efforts ever enjoyed in Ogletheorpe."

A gentleman, of Toledo, O., has been out in the mountains of this and Dawson county for several weeks examining the timber. At the same time an attorney is examining the titles to the land, and in a short while much property where the titles prove to be good, will change hands. Later—The expert represents the Rolling Co., who completed his examination this week. The timber in Lumpkin and Dawson is all right and we understand that the deal is so certain that they are going to begin a big saw mill at once. It will be located at Ball Ground, Ga. The timber will be floated as far as possible and then hauled to that place.

A right funny occurrence took place over in the stock law section of Shoal Creek district the other day between Mr. Signers and Mr. Geo. Peck. Mr. Peck's cow got into Mr. Signer's corn patch and he claimed damages to the amount of one dollar. The owner of the cow believed it to be too much and the matter was left to an arbitration, and the damages were found to be only 25 cents. Then Signers claimed 50 cents for catching the cow, making 75 all told. Mr. Peck told him all right, that he would charge him $1.00 for marrying him recently. So the one raising the complaint didn't have the money and is still due the Squire a balance of 25 cents for causing him and his wife's heart to beat as one.

Miss Mary Moore, of Rome, Ga., is on a visit to Dahlonega.

The town has been alive with visitors this week, rendering us unable to give a list of all of them for like of space.

Col. Sam Maddox, of Dalton, solicitor-general, who has two sons attending the N. G. A. College, has been here this week.

An investigation about our Cross Road's subscribers proves that they can not get their papers from here earlier than Wednesday, until the rural route is established.

Mrs. Maud Kerr, of Chattanooga, Tenn., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Worley, at Dahlonega. Also Mrs. Earnest Copeland and her daughter, from Gainesville, Ga.

Bishop Nelson, who preached at the college Sunday, was perfectly delighted with Dahlonega and desired to remain here several days but was called away to New York on business.

All parties desiring any dental work done by Dr. Crawford at the Tate House, are requested to come at once, as he has to leave the latter part of next week to meet other engagements.

The governor, Hon. Clark Howell, the tax receiver, and Sheriff Davis selling unreturned wild lands last Tuesday brought the largest crowd to Dahlonega that has been here for many years.

Our office was visited last Saturday by Miss Mollie Perry, of Tate, Ga., who came in to renew her subscription to THE NUGGET, as she has been doing annually for several years. Miss Mollie is a daughter of Mr. Wm. Perry, one of our old school mates, and the father and daughter are always glad to hear from Dahlonega.

This is the first commencement of the N. G. A. College since it has been established, that the literary societies have failed to have badges printed to be worn by all students during the exercises. It seems that a number of them have taken more interest in foot and baseball than they have in their debating societies.

Gainesville has been well represented this week. On Saturday alone eleven ladies and gentlemen from that place were registered at Hall's Villa, as follows: Rev. Thomas Burrey, Messrs. D. H. Norton, J. D. Garner, J. H. Campbell, Mrs. J. D. Garner, Mrs. Longstreet, Mrs. J. H. Downey, Misses Eva Camp, M. Simmons, Alice Simmons, Louisa Jackson, besides many more of her citizens stopping at other places.

The Dahlonega colored school closed last Saturday with very interesting exercises by the pupils. Jack Strickland, Bill Anderson, "Uncle" Allen Myers and "Uncle" Dick Anderson, though having but little education, each made a very good talk to the pupils, and if all will take their advice there will be no cause for lynchings or any other trouble among them. The only prize offered was awarded to Glover Castleberry.

Four members of the Norcross band came up and helped the boys out here with the commencement music, and they all did well, and the hundreds of people present were perfectly delighted with their music. Those from Norcross were: Messrs. Zel Myers, S. A. Johnson and two sons of Rev. W. J. Wooten, who was born and raised in Dahlonega, and our citizens acquainted with the father was glad to see his boys.

Lieut. Smith Harris, of Portland, Oregon, was among the visitors here this week. Mr. Harris was graduated at the N. G. A. College, in June 1901, and in September, the same year, went into the U. S. army. He has seen a good deal of the world since leaving Dahlonega, having been to Japan, Philippine Islands and other foreign countries. They were nice countries but none of them so dear to him as Dahlonega, where he was educated.

Senator Lumsden, of White, and Representative Shultz of Lumpkin, both attended the commencement exercises this week.

It tickled us when a certain fellow disgraced himself Wednesday night after his wife left for the college and went visiting.

Dr. Glenn will start to Louisiana in a few days, where he goes to fill an engagement for two weeks' lectures made some time ago.

Subscribers, when your subscription expires don't wait for us to notify you but renew at once if you wish THE NUGGET continued.

Mrs. F. W. Hall, of Atlanta, who owns much real estate in this county, was up first of the week on business. Mrs. Hall has made a trip to Europe recently.

Hereafter those wanting THE NUGGET only 3 months will have to pay 30 cents. 6 months, 50, 12 months $1.00. Take a full dose at once, it will do you more good.

Miss Blanch Cannon, of Porter Springs, has applied for the post-office at that place. We trust that she will get it, so as to stop so many mistakes in its management.

Chris McGuire left for Atlanta last Monday where he goes to fire on a railroad engine. Chris is one of Dahlonega's most industrious boys and we all wish him well here.

We have been revising a portion of our subscription list this week, and if some of you don't get a paper this time it will be because you didn't renew your subscription.

On Saturday after Mr. Billie England gathered a mess of beans for dinner Sunday. That night his cow got into the garden and cleaned up the bean vines and enjoyed her meal first.

"Uncle" Mart Hashaw, one of Dahlonega's oldest colored men, died here last Saturday night at the age of 97, and was buried at the expense of the county. He was a good old negro and perfectly harmless.

The prudential committee of the N. G. A. College met this week and recommended President Glenn and all the teachers, except two, to be re-elected. The others will be passed upon likewise, as soon as they send in their applications.

Some of the boys brought in a large blackberry briar by Mr. Tates last Saturday, found down about Wimpy's mill measuring 25 feet in length. To live in a land where those big briars grow, laden with excellent fruit, is a happy thought to a hungry country editor.

The N. G. A. College catalogues for 1903, is out, ready for distribution. It contains much valuable and interesting information concerning this institution. Any person desiring one can get it by dropping a card to Dr. G. R. Glenn, President.

Prof. Palmour, of Atlanta, has been in our town again this week. The Professor graduated at the N. G. A. College, and afterwards held a position in it as a teacher for some time. He never fails to pay Dahlonega an annual visit during the commencement. He enjoys these visits and his many friends here are always glad to see him come.

The thief or thieves who have been engaged in stealing up in Crumby's district, don't seem to have any respect of persons. Mrs. Alfa Howard, a very old lonely lady, whose only means of support is what rent she receives from her little farm, has lost corn at various times. Well, if they continue this and the law does not get hold of them the devil will.

Last Wednesday afternoon while Miss Bessie Miller, of Auraria, and several other parties were out bathing at Cane Creek falls, the young lady ventured too far and got into a place over her head. She was strangled and went down. Several went to her but she caught them and they were in danger too. Finally Col. Howard Thompson, Messrs. Frank Meaders and Turner Quillian rescued the young lady.

There will be an all-day singing at Soul's Chapel next Sunday. Senator Newton has been here this week mixing and mingling with the people.

Prof. Wade, of Nachoochee Valley, was among the many visitors here this week.

Rev. J. E. Blackburn will preach at Ashley school house on the 3rd Sunday of the present month.

Mayor Thompson, of Gainesville, and Mayor Stow, of Dawsonville, have been here this week.

We return thanks to our friends for their kind remembrances this week in the way of new subscribers and renewals.

Rev. C. M. Brittain and wife, of McDonough, Ga., visited Dahlonega last week. Mrs. Brittain is a sister of Mrs. Stead.

The college and Gainesville baseball teams had a game here last Monday afternoon, resulting in the college teams beating Gainesville 9 to 3.

Prof. Paul Abbott, of Dawson, was married last Sunday by Rev. V. A. Higgins to Miss Bell Christian, a daughter of Mr. Ben. Christian, of Auraria, Ga.

Lost.—A three leaf broach gold pin, between town and the college Tuesday night, pearl in center and chip in one leaf. Finder will please return to this office and get reward.

Mr. Pomp Strickland of Dawson county, who has been a patron of THE NUGGET for several years, was among the visitors here this week. He reports happiness and prosperity down his way.

A message was received here over the phone at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning stating that Mr. Tom Duckett, formerly of Lumpkin county, was killed by a cave in the mines near Bessemer, Ala. His remains were sent home for interment, which took place at Rock Springs cemetery, in this county. He leaves a wife and several children.

After the college exercises Monday night a dance was given at the club house by the Antoine Club in honor of Gainesville's visiting young ladies. On Tuesday night again the young folks had a dance. Then Wednesday night after the exercises closed the commencement ball took place. All the dancing girls were there, and the occasion was one long to be remembered.

Senator Geo. Phillips, who resides in Fannin county, was here this week, accompanied by his wife. They have had three sons going to college at Dahlonega and two daughters at Shorter College, Rome, Ga. If all citizens would take as much interest in educating their sons and daughters as Mr. Phillips there would be less ignorance in the land.

During the Ordinary's court here last week the estate of John B. Cannon, deceased, was divided up as follows: The two children, Patsy and Queen, by his first wife were given $86.00, and the remainder of his estate, $487.00, as appraised, were given his last wife and four children. His first wife was appointed guardian for her children, and made bond in accordance with law.

The committee, Hon. Clark Howell, chairman; Hon. John T. Newton, of Morgan county, and Hon. A. L. Hall, of Athens, appointed from the University to visit the N. G. A. College and see its progress, were here this week and each expressed himself as being highly pleased with everything connected with this noble institution. So was the governor. THE NUGGET office had a pleasant visit from the chairman on Tuesday afternoon, who has been one of its strongest supporters for the past twenty years, causing Mr. Howell to have many warm friends here. This was his first visit. He was aware that the college had already accomplished much good in Georgia but had a desire to come and see and talk with the faculty and trustees, being willing to aid them again in securing such appropriations as are needed.

Monday night numbers of people were turned away from the College Hall, unable to even find standing room.

T. J. Smith & Bro. are offering their spring stock of clothing at greatly reduced prices in order to make room for their fall stock. 4t

You can get a large, beautiful photograph of the Cane Creek Falls, near Dahlonega, at this office for 25 cents, two cents extra for postage.

The spring term of college has ended and nearly all the students have reached their homes by this time. They all have our best wishes for a pleasant time.

Dr. Cavender, of Hall county, informed us this week that he had made up his mind to move to Dahlonega about the middle of next month and locate. Welcome.

Emory Bracket, of Auraria district, came to town last Monday acting gentlemanly and nice, but in a short while to get on enough corn liquor to make him do and say enough to cause his imprisonment. One and cost settled it.

Cadet Yaw, who vomited in the college hall during the commencement sermon last Sunday, said to be from an over-dose of liquor, entered a plea of guilty, was fined $5 and cost by Mayor Baker on Monday. This was a very bad mark to wind up with—one which should be a warning not only to him but to all others, who go to church drinking. The faculty sent him home.

On Friday night some one stole Prof. Barnes' pocket book while he was at a festival given at the Pi Capa hall, having jerked it out of his pocket in getting his handkerchief. It contained some sixty or sixty-five dollars, mostly in checks. The little Hunter negro was arrested and lodged in jail on suspicion, but was released the next morning on account of having no evidence to convict him.

In giving the news THE NUGGET treats all people alike, matters not if the party is as prominent as the governor of Georgia, or as poor as Jobs turkey, high or low, rich or poor, although it may be very unpleasant to us some times. So if a person gets into trouble it is their fault, not ours. When a poor unfortunate person who has received no help or encouragement, goes wrong no efforts are made to conceal his acts or try to help him out, although he is the very one who needs aid and lifting up.

Hon. Hoke Smith has declared his candidacy for governor and Hon. Pope Brown has retired from the race and pledges his support to Mr. Smith. Judge Maddox's influence will be for Mr. Howell. These two brilliant candidates will make things lively before long. We believe as between the two that Mr. Howell would carry Lumpkin county, but if a certain expected candidate declares himself in the field it will likely make a change. However, either gentleman would make a good governor.

It seems that Jackson county cannot keep her convicts from escaping when they take a notion. Last Saturday one by the name of Smith, serving out a sentence of four years, got away and was captured last Monday near noon in Dahlonega, the reward for him being $25. The sheriff had been notified by phone Sunday to look out for him. It has often been said that there is nearly always a woman in all kinds of trouble. It was not exactly so in this case but the picture of a woman tattooed on one of his arms caused the sheriff to know that he had the right man from the description given him. Soon after Smith escaped he entered a house and stole a suit of clothes and a gun leaving in place of these things his striped clothes. Later on in his journey the man swapped off the gun for a pistol and arrived here donned in a pair of overalls and a jumper with the pistol stuck in one pocket. Don't know what he did with the stolen suit. He says his name is Dick Brown and lives in Boston, Mass.

The Graded School Closed.

An unusually interesting program was carried out last Saturday morning at the closing of the Dahlonega Graded School. The house was crowded to overflow and a number of persons were turned away, showing that our citizens feel a great interest in this splendid institution which is doing so much good in our community, and the intelligent manner in which each little one conducted itself during these closing exercises caused all patrons to feel proud of both pupils and instructors.

Dr. Glenn, president of the N. G. A. College, who is always ready to lend a helping hand towards anything that tends to help in the way of education, was on hand and made a splendid talk in the way of encouragement and praise of the school, causing the little ones to look still more brighter and cheerful.

Col. W. A. Charters, before delivering the medals, had several interesting things to say in reference to the pupils, teachers and institution.

The medals were awarded as follows:

First Grade—Kathrine Vickery. Second—Viola Housley. Third—Reuben McKee. Fourth—Emily Gaillard. Fifth—Ruth Russell. Sixth—Ceel Jackson and Pearl Rice tied. A medal were given each.

Seventh—Francis Stanton. There are several persons in Dahlonega who are not sending their children, although this institution is free to all. Do not let this be the case any longer than next term. Send them and let them grow up to be bright and intelligent men and women.

Mining News.

The test of ore at the Findley has not been completely yet as they wish to ascertain the value of the tailings.

Mr. Stowers, an expert from Chattanooga, has spent several days in this county examining the Hix mining property for a company anticipating buying it. Uncle Bony Tank was with the expert. The members of the company are expected in next week.

Mr. Hobert, of Chattanooga, the gentleman who spent some time in the upper portion of this county, a few months ago in prospecting for mica, returned again this week, with the intention, we suppose, in resuming work on the valuable beds of this mineral he discovered while here.

Mr. S. W. Van Syde, Newark, N. J., who has been expected down for some weeks to begin work at the lower Etowah mine, wrote last week that he would be in this county in a few days, and may be at the mine by this time. He is also interested in the Whim Bill mining property recently all in this county.

Some nice nuggets are being picked up by the Briar Patch bank, occasionally finding one weighing eight or ten penny-weights. The pounce to be used in saving the black sand is in by this time. The saving of the gold in the black sand in this country has been more expensive than profit. We don't know this experiment will turn out. However, this addition of the gold saving method does not interfere with the profitable progress of the dredge. The Bunker Hill dredge is getting its share of the gold from the same stream, Chestate river, some distance above.

The nice display of grain, grown on the college farm here by Prof. Davis in the store window of merchant Price is attracting much attention. There are ten bunches of different kinds of wheat, two of oats and three of barley. It is certainly fine and cannot not be beat in Georgia. This proves what the right kind of labor on our red lands will produce.

Try us with a job of work if you wish it done in haste, cheap and up to date.

ORIGIN OF PIKE'S PEAK.

Indian Legend of the Formation of This Famous Mountain.

The quaint Indian legend of the formation of Pike's peak is as follows: "At the beginning of all things the lesser spirits possessed the earth and dwelt near the banks of the great river. They had created a race of men to be their servants, but these men were far superior to the present inhabitants of the earth and made small trouble for their creators. Therefore the lesser spirits resolved to destroy mankind and the earth itself, so they caused the great river to rise until it burst its banks and overwhelmed everything. They themselves took each a large portion of the best of the earth that they might create a new world and a quantity of maize, which had been their particular food, and returned to heaven. Arriving at the gate of heaven, which is at the end of the plume, where the sky and mountains meet, they were told that they could not bring such burdens of earth into heaven. Accordingly they dropped them all then and there. These falling masses made a great heap on the top of the world which extended far above the waters, and this is the origin of Pike's peak, which is thus shown to be directly under the gate of heaven. (It was formerly twice as high as now, but lost its summit, as is told in another legend.)

"The rock masses upon it and all about show that they have been dropped from the sky. The variety and extent of the various rocks in the region prove that the earth's choicest materials are deposited there. And still as the constellations move across the heavens and vanish above the mountain summits we may see the spirits rise from the great river and pass to the gate of heaven. The falling stars are their great burdens or the dropping grains of maize."

CULTIVATE FACT.

If You Do Not Possess It, Strive to Acquire It.

I want it recognized that fact should be taught continuously, seriously, thoroughly, that it should be placed in the forefront of education and take its natural first place side by side with the catechism, writes Frank Danby in Black and White.

A friend of mine recently suffering under a great bereavement was in the receipt of innumerable letters and telegrams from friends, acquaintances and the general public. Out of the 1,140 of such communications two only hit the right note. Among pages of sentiment and religious counsel the two messages alone touched the heart.

"He was a man I loved. I am with you in your grief," was one.

The other ran: "You have lost your best pal. He was mine too. God help us both."

Both of them epitomized the sender—men with great hearts, the one in question of fact by one of the other sympathizers would have supplied its place.

Again, paying an afternoon visit recently, my hostess, wanting a book to which our conversation had referred, rang the bell. Within two minutes the servant appeared with tea, and the following colloquy occurred:

"Who told you to bring tea?"

"Please, ma'am, I thought that was what you rang for."

"Well, please don't think. I hired you to answer the bell. It wasn't the signal for a guessing competition. When I want you to do that I'll supply the kitchen with a copy of a newspaper."

I was not surprised to hear this lady changed her servants frequently.

In Darkest London.

In his book, "Child Slaves of Great Britain," Robert H. Sherard writes: "There are thousands of our poor children in London starving not on account of the poverty of the parents, but by reason of the ignorance and sloth of the mothers. They know nothing of cookery; they wish to have nothing. They do not care for the trouble. In every London slum you will find a fried fish shop or a cooked meat shop or a grocer who sells cheese and pickles and bottled things. It is much easier and less worriment-like to send the children out with coppers for a pound of fish and cheese or a bit of cheese and pickles than to cook any thing for them."

Vocation and Avocation.

"Avocation" is one of those unfortunate words that are constantly being used in a wrong sense. Strictly speaking, it refers to something that calls a man away from the ordinary occupation of his life. If you earn your living by drafting conveyances and interpreting legal subtleties and also are often seen in leisure hours with a camera in your hand and have a dark room at home, then the law is your vocation and photography your avocation.—London Telegraph.

The Paramecium.

There are few birds whose plumage is so variable as the paramecium's. Three times in the year its plumage changes. It has separate coats for spring, autumn and winter. At the beginning of November it gets the last costume of the season. Its spring brown and summer gray serve well to hide it among the scanty herbage of its haunts from the keen eye of the sporting falcon.

True Economy.

"So you have bought your wife another expensive ring. Isn't that a waste of money?"

"On the contrary, it is true economy, for she won't require half so many pairs of gloves as formerly."

There cannot be a greater rudeness than to interrupt another in the current of his discourse.—Locke.

Graves of the Confederate Dead.

Cincinnati, May 26.—Mrs. Mary Patton Hudson, Princeton Hotel is raising funds to care for the graves of Confederate dead on Johnson's Island.

Lieut. W. E. Hansen, 1st Georgia Infantry.

I. Reeves, 1st Georgia cavalry.

Capt. I. U. D. King, 9th Georgia Infantry.

H. D. Stephenson, 9th Georgia Infantry.

Lieut. W. N. Swift, 34th Georgia Infantry.

Capt. I. Middlebrooks, 40th Georgia Infantry.

Lieut. H. B. Dawson, 17th Georgia Infantry.

Lieut. J. L. Land, 24th Georgia Infantry.

Lieut. I. F. McElroy, 24th Georgia Infantry.

Capt. F. F. Cooper, 52nd Georgia Infantry.

Lieut. R. P. Bolling, 6th Georgia Cavalry.

I. W. Campbell, 67th Georgia Infantry.

Move On.

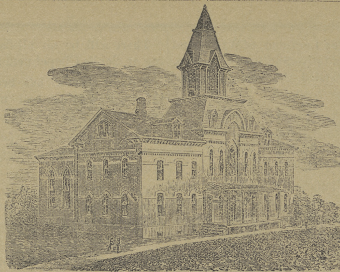

Lots of things work against a town, but nothing works with greater depriment to the best interests of a town than to have a few self-styled wise fellows whose principal occupation is to frequent the loafing resorts, whittle up the white pine dry goods boxes, and make unfavorable comparisons of the place which permits him to live in it and which he calls home with some other town which he has heard about or perchance visited. He will talk with almost any fellow, but never fails to say all the uncomplimentary things he can think of against his town. He also makes some very uncomplimentary remarks about the women and young ladies of the town as they pass by his loafing place. This kind of a fellow is entitled to the prize as the sorriest fellow on earth, and should be given a good swift kick by everybody in town.

A Cheerful Face.

Next to the sunlight of heaven is a cheerful face. There is no mistaking it. The bright eye, the unclouded brow, the sunny smile all tell of that which dwells within. Who has not felt its electrifying influence? One glance at this face lifts us out of the mists and shadows into the beautiful realms of hope. One cheerful face in the household will keep everything warm and light within. It may be a very plain face, but there is something in it we feel, yet cannot express, and its cheery smile sends the blood dancing through our veins for very joy. Ah, there is a world of magic in the plain, cheerful face, and we would not exchange it for all the soulless beauty that ever graced the fairest form on earth.

Education is certainly a failure for a druggist in Denver who has been saving some of the notes he has received, says they read like this: "I have a cute pain in my baby's stomach, please give her something to cure it." "My little girl has cut up a lot of buttons. Please send me a emetic in the enclosed box." "Dear doctor, a dog bit my child on the leg, please send some cork plaster and but her cry." "Dear doctor, what is good for tinea? I've tried some quick I got it."

The past is gone—bury it and let it rest in peace; tomorrow is not ours, and when it is it will appear clothed in the garments woven by our thoughts of today.

You Must Sleep.

If you cannot, it is due to an irritated or congested state of the brain, which will soon develop into nervous prostration. Nature demands sleep, and it is as important as food; it is a part of her building and sustaining process. This period of unconsciousness relaxes the mental and physical strain, and allows nature to restore exhausted vitality.

Dr. Miles' Nerveine brings refreshing sleep, because it soothes the irritation and removes the congestion.

It is also a nerve builder; it nourishes and strengthens every nerve in your body, and creates energy in all the organs.

Nothing will give strength and vitality as surely and quickly as Dr. Miles' Nerveine.

"During the past winter I had two attacks of indigestion, which left me very weak and in a condition, I was told, for a doctor. My friend, a neighbor recommended Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and after I had used it a few bottles, I found that I had not slept for some time, and had terrible pains in my head. The pain was not so severe, and I felt better, and I am now taking the second bottle, and I feel much improved."

HENRY M. SMITH, Underhill, Vt.
Dr. Miles' Nerveine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit you. If it fails, he will refund your money.

The Minister Helped the Boy.

A little boy was trying to ring a doorbell, but could not reach it. A minister, passing by, walked up to the lad and said:

"Here, my boy, let me ring that bell for you."

"All right, will you, mister?" said the boy, his face on a grin.

The minister rang the bell.

"Now, run like the devil, mister," said the boy, as he took to heels.

AN OLD RECORD.

A Unique Will Made in 1849
By a Lumpkin County Man.

We find upon record in the Ordinary's office of Lumpkin county a will made by S. D. Crane in 1849. It is upon a serious occasion, but if any one will read it without laughing we will be surprised. So here it is, try it:

I, S. Douglas Crane, being of sound mind and memory, knowing that all men must die, do make and declare this to be my last will and testament, do give and bequeath my soul to God.

Item 1st. I appoint Wm. Wood R. B. Lewis and A. Harris my executors and do solemnly request them to law N. Nicholson to the full extent of the law. I impute my cramp colic to his injustice to me. I was compelled to go to Coosa and starve, and then I caught the cold that is killing me.

Item second. I will that they pay themselves and our attorneys and spend as much as is necessary in buying a slab, and place on it: "Here lies the remains of S. Douglas Crane. Born the 8th of November, 1830, who served five years in the Georgia Legislature and never lost a day; and dies in the full faith of the Methodist doctrine, and in full hope, to which church he wills $50."

Item 3. I wish the note on Jonathan Cox for $50, and one on Wm. Chambers for $35 to be given up to Wingfield to pay B. Towns $100 A. Crane and myself owe him.

Item 4th. I will to Lewis Ralston three-eighths of 803 12-1, and to Douglass Ball the little lot fronting Ball on connection that Ralston gives it up. And I give up to Ralston all he owes me for claims on me.

Item 5th. I give all my pine mountains to children named after me by relatives.

Item 6th. I will to Lewis and J. A. Harris my interest in 1145-12-1.

Item 7th. I will my bible to Walter I. Hawkins. I will to John A. Moody his choice of my books to the amount of what my brother and myself owe him. I will my bedstead and all my bed clothes to Thursday Ann Murphy. I will the balance of my library to Vernal Mahaffey. I will to my mother $100.

Item 8th. I will my ax to Berry Forester. I will to Abram Crane the one-half of all that is owing to me, to collect the balance and collect my debts. S. DOUGLASS CRANE.

According to an exchange, the man who went out to milk and sat down on a boulder in the middle of the pasture and waited for the cow to back up, was a brother to the man who kept a store and wouldn't advertise because he reasoned that the purchasing public would back up to the place of business when they wanted something.

A gentleman was here last week electioneering in the interest of Hon. W. G. Brantley for Georgian next governor, and it may be that Mr. Brantley will join the "boys" in the race later on.

Her First Railroad Ride.

An old lady in Missouri took her first railroad trip last week, says the Butler Democrat. She noticed the bell-cord overhead, and turning to a boy, she said: "Sonny, what's that for?"

"That, marm," he said, with a mischievous twinkle in his eye, "is to ring the bell when you want something to eat."

Shortly afterward the old lady reached her umbrella up to the cord and gave it a vigorous pull. The train was in the middle of a trestle. The whistle sounded, the brakes were pulled on, the train began to slacken its speed, windows were thrown up, questions asked, and confusion reigned among the passengers. The old lady sat calmly through it all.

Presently the conductor came running through the train and asked: "Who pulled the bell?"

"I did," replied the old lady meekly.

"Well, what do you want?" asked the conductor, impatiently.

"Well," said the old lady meditatively, "you may bring me a ham, sandwich and a cup of tea, please."

We often wonder if there is anybody on earth that gets as little thought from the people as the poor one horse newspaper man. They have their penicils and if he is invited, he can't go, far many reasons, the first of which is because he don't care to have action brought against him for appearing in company attired in a manner that it would be hard to tell whether he was a man or a monkey, and that he can't go, because he must stay at home and work to get the paper out as near on time as he can, so that the people won't cuss him for being a slugard, and still again, he hates to have people tell him that he is letting the paper go down, when he is doing every thing in his power to put something in the paper and not a mother's son will send him the news from the different points in the county, and again, he is generally so sore from coming in contact with the bald headed end of

THE DRAUGHT
THE body gets its life from food properly digested. Healthy digestion means pure blood for the body, but stomach troubles arise from carelessness in eating and stomach disorders upset the entire system. Improperly masticated food sores on the stomach, causing distressing pains, belching and nausea. When over-eating is persisted in the stomach becomes weakened and worn out and dyspepsia claims the victim.
Thedford's Black-Draught cures dyspepsia. It frees the stomach and bowels of congested matter and gives the stomach new life. The stomach is quickly invigorated and the natural stimulation results in a good appetite, with the power to thoroughly digest food.
You can build up your stomach with this mild and natural remedy. Try Thedford's Black-Draught today. You can buy a package from your dealer for 25c. If he does not keep it, send the money to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed you.

Mr. Guery is for Joe Hill Hall for governor.

Peace between the Japs and Russians is now talked of.

Agass Mayens, of Kansas City, assisted her lover in killing her husband and now she must be hung for it.

There is going to be an electric line built from Atlanta to Macon. Now why can't we have one from that city to Dahlonega?

Dr. Broughton, of Atlanta, has fired into the criminal laws of Georgia. He is always shooting but never hurts anything.

On Friday morning in Atlanta, Miss Ellis Markles mistook carbolic acid for lime water and by drinking it died in a short time.

Senator Dodd, who was sentenced to serve a term of two years in the penitentiary for misappropriating $1,500 of school money, has been pardoned.

The Southern Cotton Association report of the reduction of the acreage of cotton is much less than that made by the government. Some of the association men are afraid that they will lose their fat jobs.

Mr. R. E. Smith, our efficient tax collector, will be associated with Miss Lucy Cochran in conducting the summer term of the Avery's school. Mr. Smith is a graduate of the North Georgia Agricultural College, Dahlonega, and a teacher of experience.—Cherokee Advance.

The Alpharetta Free Press is a very strong advocate of Judge Russell for governor, saying that "he has no money, but he has a head and a heart." If poverty and a head and a heart entitles a person to the gubernatorial chair, there are plenty of others who ought to be out in the field pushing their claims.

Sheriff W. B. Lovingsgood returned from Austin, Texas, last Friday and brought back Luther Glazier, who killed his wife instantly near Epworth, in this county, on March 26, last. There was a reward of $200.00 offered by the Governor, and we suppose this will be paid to the sheriff at Austin.—Blue Ridge World.

R. T. Ewing, who shot and killed the Galloway boys on the train last Friday morning, is under guard at the Cook house and Judge Guber has ordered the sheriff to put him in jail. We suppose the Judge had good reasons for so ordering, but it seems that he could have set a bond for him just as easily and it would have been less expense to the county. We have never seen a parallel case to this and there will probably be another Watson case, like we had about a year ago.—Blue Ridge World.

Dr. G. R. Glenn, former state school commissioner of Georgia and for the past two years president of the North Georgia Agricultural College, at Dahlonega, is being urged to run for state school commissioner. Dr. Glenn was a caller at the office of Governor Terrell this morning, and while there was asked concerning the report that he would run. He said: "The primary is a long ways off yet, and I am too busily engaged in my college work at present to give consideration to the subject. I am receiving a great many letters from different parts of the state asking if I will be a candidate and requesting that I run. I appreciate these, but can give no answer at this time." Let Common Sense Decide

Do you honestly believe, that coffee sold loose (in bulk), exposed to dust, germs and insects, passing through many hands (some of them not over-clean), "blended," you don't know how or by whom, is fit for your use? Of course you don't. But is another story. The green berries, selected by keen judges at the plantation, are skillfully roasted at our factories, where precautions you would not dream of are taken to secure perfect cleanliness, flavor, strength and uniformity.

From the time the coffee leaves the factory no hand touches it till it is opened in your kitchen.

This has made LION COFFEE the LEADER of ALL PACKAGE COFFEES.

Mining News.

Mr. W. J. Hightower, the contractor, expected to commence building the tubes on the canal for the Briar Patch canal this week.

The Crown Mountain mine still keeps moving. A portion of the stamps run one shift. At last accounts Mr. Rogers, recently elected president, had not accepted.

The drum and a wheel of the Bunker Hill dredge broke last week causing a suspension of several days until the repairs are made good. Development work on the property continues with good results.

The Lockhart mine continues to yield its usual amount of gold in paying quantities under the able management of the McDonaldis. The Lockhart has already proved to be the best deep mine yet discovered in Lumpkin county.

The placer work down at the Calhoun moves right along without any delay under the supervision of Mr. Wharton Anderson. Although the property changed hands some time ago the work has not ceased a single day since, and is paying well as usual.

Some fine specimens of gold were picked up down at the Barlow mine last week. Everything is moving along in a business like way at this mine now and the company is going to commence making money soon, for the gold is there and men are in charge who know how to get it.

It will be observed by referring to our advertising columns that Craig R. Arnold, Wm. Heather and M. P. Lind, of Philadelphia; W. P. Price, Dahlonega; R. K. Reeves, of Athens, Ga., are making application for a charter under the name and style of Southern Power and Milling Co. The property mentioned in the application is first class.

Messrs. Post and Thompson were down last week from Nebraska looking over the Bunker Hill gold mining property and were so well pleased that they bought nice blocks of stock, which every one does almost who desires investing in this kind of property after seeing the rich prospects and its good management. Another clean up at the boat last week brought a pleasant appearance to all present, even to those not interested, for everybody delights in seeing a good thing.

Hon. Hoke Smith, candidate for governor, fires his first campaign gun at Madison, June 29th.

When the Russians want a holiday they go out and butcher a Jew and that is one of the reasons why the civilized world is in sympathy with Japan.—Marietta Journal.

H. T. Martin, J. W. Bailey, et al., were granted a temporary injunction last week restraining the North Georgia Electric Company from building the dam at Wilson's shoals, on the Chattahoochee. They allege that the backed water from the dam will injure their property. A hearing will be had in July.

Col. Howard Thompson, of Gainesville, has been appointed to the board of trustees of the State University at Athens.

Hoke Smith was like the little boy, when he saw Clark Howell start out "fishing" he wanted to go too.

General A. J. Warner is president, W. H. Slack is secretary and treasurer, and W. A. Carlisle is chief engineer, and Fred P. Catching is electrical engineer of a company composed of a number of the gentlemen of this city who are interested and officers in the North Georgia Electric and allied companies, which has just completed a deal in Cartersville, Bartow county, involving $50,000 cash, for harnessing the nearby Etowah river. The company is known as the Etowah Power Company. It will develop the power on the Etowah in Bartow and Cherokee counties. Dams will be constructed similar to the big Dunlap dam near this place. About 8,000 horse power will be developed.—Gainesville Eagle.

It is thought by some that Mr. R. F. Wright, assistant commissioner of agriculture, who spent several days in Dahlonega last week, will be a candidate to preside over the agricultural department.

Down at Chipley, Ga., the other day Dr. Hardy cowed an old man on the streets, then approached the mayor with a pistol in hand, talking sassy. The marshal interfered and the result was, each fired three shots. Hardy was killed and the mayor was shot in the wrist during the time.

Professor R. G. Glenn, former state school commissioner and now of the North Georgia Agricultural College at Dahlonega, was among the visitors at the office of Governor Terrell yesterday. Professor Glenn was conferring with the governor regarding educational matters, with especial reference to the North Georgia College.—Constitution.

Down in Cobi county last week John G. Landrum, while out traveling, was met by two negroes and demanded to stop. He grabbed his pistol and shot at them. They returned the fire, shooting his horse in the hind flank, causing it to run away, which likely saved Mr. Landrum from being murdered. The horse died after he had led it home.

Several visitors here last week who were never in Dahlonega before had their attention attracted to the clean appearance of the place. Now, let us take a pride in keeping it so.

Prof. Woodward, who has charge of the College Park School, arrived in our city last week, accompanied by his family. The Professor is a graduate of the N. G. A. College and wedded a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Castleberry, of this place.

Wonder if that member of the church up in the mountains, who had liquor manufactured during last fall got a supply sufficient to tunc his voice all through the summer revivals and campmeetings to his satisfaction? Oh satan, where art thou?

More distinguished visitors attended the commencement exercises here last week than have been here any one time for years. What caused it? Dr. Glenn's influence, plainly evident that he is the right man in the right place and will cause its usefulness to greatly increase.

Our friend, Mr. F. J. Williams, of Two Run, was down the other day. He and his father reside on a farm near the foot of the Blue Ridge, where they both enjoy good health, peace and plenty, yellow legged chickens not excepted, being able to have them every day in the week and Sunday too. This is life in the mountains.

From the partial list of road hands, received by Judge Evans, it shows that there will be about an average of one-fourth of a mile of road to each hand. This should not cause the stingiest man in Lumpkin county to grumble about working them by taxation, for when they are once put in good fix it will not take much to keep them up.

Over in Martin's Ford district, Lumpkin county, can be seen every day during the farming season, a man and his boy with two different plow stocks plowing the same ox. It looks like a double foot, would do best and save one labor, but it may be that the father is fond of company, else does this to keep his son out of bad company. It might be well enough to state that this boy smokes no cigarettes.

We stated last week that Mr. Tom Duckett, who got killed in Alabama, was buried in Lumpkin county. It was a mistake. They had the grave dug, upon being notified that his remains would be sent, but it was afterwards decided to bury him in Alabama. A letter states that Mr. Duckett got killed in the slope. The cage rope broke letting the cage back on him and breaking his head, causing his death in an hour and a half from the time he was hurt.

Carl Brooksher is now clerking at the store of G. D. Bruce.

Col. Lilly spent three or four days in Atlanta on business this week.

Mrs. F. M. Williams, of Two Run, Ga., has been visiting Dahlonega this week.

Corn sold here this week at 50 cents in trade, as cheap as it was when first made.

Assistant Postmaster Jim Tate has been up to his fathers farm killing weeds this week.

Rev. W. C. Taylor, after being absent from Dahlonega a few weeks, returned last Saturday.

David Franklin discharged his shot gun the other night at some one prowling around his house.

A new bell, purchased by the patrons of the Ashley school, has been put in position this week.

If anybody fails to get their NUGGERS on time let them notify us and we will see whose fault it is.

Lumpkin county jail is empty now, being the first time it has been without prisoners in a long time.

Mr. Milt Loveless came up this week from the pyrites mine in Douglas county looking for some hands to go down there to work.

Mr. Charlie England is now behind the counter at W. P. Price's store. Charlie is clever, active and genteel and will treat the customers nice clever.

Instead of sitting down and grumbling about everything that doesn't go to suit you speak a good word for Dahlonega and things will come all right.

Prof. Calloway has resigned as principal of the Dahlonega Public School and will move to other parts. The board has not elected any one to fill his place yet, but will take action soon.

Prof. Calloway, who leaves our town soon, has some good household and kitchen furniture to sell cheap. If you need anything in this line call and see him at his home near Prof. Boyds.

Two members of the Baptist church, a male and female, were to have had a trial here last Sunday, but the defendants failed to appear and we guess likely their names will be erased from the church book.

The other day a certain man in Dahlonega accepted an invitation to go out a piece and eat some vegetables with a woman. His wife found it out and was soon present kicking up such a racket that her husband's dinner did him no good.

We were shown this week a letter that had been opened by some one at one of the country postoffices in this county. It was done with a pencil. Then read and re-read. Opening other peoples letters is dangerous and is going to cause trouble.

The law requires all persons owning or keeping a dog in Dahlonega ten days to pay the tax on it. And the marshal requests that all who have not yet paid such taxes to come in at once and settle the same without any further delay.

A few days ago Mr. Kenzie Porter, of this county, went out into the mountains and saw a big wild cat coming towards him. He pulled down on it with his gun. It was loaded with fine shot and only put the cats eyes out. Such actions were never noticed before. It rolled, jumped and tumbled until Mr. Porter got larger shot in his gun and pulled the trigger.

The weather was quite cool here latter part of last week, causing the thermometer to drop to 50.

Mr. R. C. Meaders, and Profs. Barnes and Steed went across the mountain last week trout hunting.

Mr. J. B. Clements, of Lumpkin county, spent the most of last week in South Carolina examining a gold mine.

If you wish to spend the summer in Dahlonega and desire a private place to stay, write to John H. Moore for terms.

Prof. R. W. Davis left last Monday with his family for Tennessee, to be absent until the fall term of the college opens.

The trustees of the N. G. A. College last week voted for an appropriation of $800 for athletic purposes next year, but no boy is allowed to belong to it unless he makes a certain mark in his studies.

Recently one of the Nix's, of White county, was arrested, charged with owning an illicit distillery. His brother, West Hix, said that it was his. So the defendant was released, and this week West was bound over.

It is hoped that the next baseball team visiting Dahlonega from Gainesville will stay a little soberer than the last one. Although the boys got defeated they were paid $20 to make the trip and had a gay old time.

Lieut. Fred Price, who is now located at Vancouver Barracks, Washington, will wed Miss Cecilia Danneniller on the 21st inst., and then leave on a visit to his parents at Dahlonega, expected to arrive here about the 25th.

Mr. John Couch, who left this county fifteen years ago and went to Texas, returned last Saturday, together with his family. Mr. Couch is a son-in-law of Mrs. Martha Cain, residing here. The gentleman has returned to the mountains for his health and will locate in Dahlonega for the purpose of educating his sons. We extend to him a most hearty welcome.

Col. Farrow has been busy in getting his telephone from Dahlonega to Porter Springs in good shape. It has been out of fix since the heavy sleet and snows of last winter. His hotel at Porter was opened the 15th inst., and this phone will enable his guests to sit and talk to their friends and relatives in Georgia or anywhere else they may desire. Several visitors went up the first day.

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College last week it was decided not to lease the Consolidated Co's hotel for a dormitory next year, but instead use the girl's dormitory at the college, to be controlled by Prof. Barnes who had charge of the other. It will accommodate about forty and others can get board in private families at reasonable prices. President Glenn's salary was raised from $1,800 to $2,000 per annum. The professors salaries were also raised some.

Now that the Consolidated Company's large beautiful hotel is unoccupied why don't some wide awake, energetic person rent it and open out a summer hotel for the benefit of visitors who wish to spend the season here? This hotel is in tip top shape and located in one of the most desirable places in Dahlonega. It could be filled very soon with visitors with the proper management. Look what a crowd they have up at Porter Springs every summer under the splendid management of Col. Farrow. Porter is a nice place for visitors, though a dull headed man with no public spirit about him might go up there, sit down, wait for the people to come and perish to death, simply on account of being too stingy to spend a little money for printers ink. The Colonel is not this kind of a man is why he succeeds. In one day alone last week the postage on his advertising matter was more than thirty dollars.

The farmers are about all out of the weeds now and look more cheerful.

The trustees of the N. G. A. College have re-elected teachers to fill all the places in the institution except the chair of French and Drawing. This will be filled later on.

We were glad to see a letter last week from Mr. L. A. Bearden, a former citizen of Lumpkin county, who attended college at Dahlonega many years ago. He is located at Wildwood, Fla., and is doing well.

A candidate for governor, worth thousands of dollars, sends us his announcement without any "spondulix." Such is this very discouraging to a poor sockless, half starved country editor. We have no free space for any candidate. Send along the cash. Money is what "makes the mare go."

We understand that there are several persons who have not yet returned their state and county taxes for the present year. The tax receiver is at work on his book and when he gets ready to consolidate the returns, all who have not made any returns will be double taxed. Then you will not be relieved by the ordinary unless you have a legal excuse. Then should you have a legal excuse his fee will be $1.00. So all who have not returned their taxes had better attend to it at once. There is going to be no child's work about this matter. But this you will learn by waiting.

We are in receipt of a little booklet of 32 pages gotten up by Col. S. A. Jones, president of the Cavender Creek Gold Mine in Lumpkin county, telling all about Waynesville, N. C., the place where he resides. Fifty thousand are being sent out, which will be worth thousands of dollars to that young city. It takes capital, work and energy to build up a place and this is the way to start it. The people of Dahlonega and Lumpkin county should follow this example and grow prosperous. Persons are not coming here unless you invite them. Now, let something be done in this direction. It will make the town grow and prosper and help the whole country.

The city council held its regular meeting last Monday and transacted such business as came before it. Nothing of importance, however, except requesting the finance committee and tax assessors to make an investigation and see why certain parties had returned no money, or any other personal property. Other parties had left off a portion of their personal property. The tax assessors were requested to notice this and get all such property down on their book. The marshal's report for May was received, which is as follows: Street taxes collected in cash, $88.50. Street taxes worked out, $13.50. Fines collected, $9.00. Sanitary taxes collected, $1.25. Dog tax, $2.00. Total collected, $50.25.

Arrangements are being made to have a fiddlers convention in Dahlonega on Saturday, the 22nd day of July in order that every fiddler in this and adjoining counties may have an opportunity of coming together and playing some of their old time pieces, such as Katie Hill and other favorite pieces. Suitable prizes will be offered so as to make it more interesting to those handling the bow. A program of this expected delightful occasion will be published at an early day, likely next week. The place selected is in the woods at the spring in the hollow on the left of the first branch, less than half a mile from the court house, where comfortable seats will be prepared beneath the beautiful shades made by the trees of the forest, near water that is almost as cold as if it contained ice. Everybody will be invited to come to this social gathering of the people of the town and country from both far and near, and participate in a big picnic.

Dr. Howard has been too sick to be out for several days.

Mr. Couch will occupy the John Moore building, formerly owned by Geo. W. White.

Last Monday afternoon, after eating a can of oysters, Col. Charters got sick and was housed up a day or so.

Mr. James M. Smith, of Auraria, Ga., has been appointed commercial notary by Judge Kinsey and received his commission last Tuesday.

Jim Burt, of White county, was arrested by Deputy Marshal Grizzle last Monday on a bench warrant and carried to Atlanta, charged with illicit distilling.

Prof. Chas. H. White, of Harvard University, at Cambridge, Mass., writes that he will be in Dahlonega on July 2nd with his summer class in mining, consisting of ten or fifteen persons, who expect to remain here the 8th and part of the 4th in visiting the mines in and about Dahlonega for the study of practical mining operations.

Tax Receiver Calhoun is keeping a watchful eye after tax dodgers. Some parties swore last year that they had no corn for sale. Yet they have since been selling, and as the law makes it the duty of tax collectors to collect any back taxes he may know of for previous years, it may be that these parties will have to pay on this corn yet, as it is said that one had at least five hundred bushels to sell.

One of Mr. Kenzie Porters sons, who went from this county to Wyoming, wrote back here last week that they had snow out in his country then. And Judge Evans' brother, who is in Colorado, writes that the snow has recently been five feet deep in the mountains of that section. We never liked snow in the summer time is why we prefer the old red hills of Lumpkin.

The tax receiver is going to have some more arbitrations this week. There is one party who has been offered $800 for his farm, yet says that he wants $1,000, but still wishes to return it at $800, which makes the receiver believe that it is not a true return, causing such steps to be taken. There should be tax assessors. In Dahlonega we know of a man returning his house and lot at $500, who has tried to sell it at $2,000. This is unjust and causes other people to have to pay most of the taxes, and will cause high taxes as long as it is allowed.

Col. Stobo Farrow and his daughter, Miss Julia Farrow, of South Carolina, are spending the summer at Porter Springs. Col. Farrow was Colonel of the 13th regiment during the civil war and has been a prominent democratic politician in that state ever since, and was Auditor for the war department during Mr. Cleveland's last administration. He and his brother, Col. H. P. Farrow, have always differed widely in politics—one of them for Breckenridge in 1860 and the other for Douglas, one of them for secession and the other for the union, one of them was always a democrat and the other always a republican, but no two brothers were ever more affectionately attached to each other.

Blackberry briars don't begin to shed their blooms hardly before some people here commence getting ready to make wine. There are two sisters of the church who make it every year and sell it contrary to law to boys and everybody else who want to get drunk. This is so nothing that even the Farmers' Alliance wouldn't allow and churches ought not permit any of their members to do so. We believe that there is a very poor chance for any member to get to heaven who will violate the law in this manner and sell a stuff that causes people to get into trouble and have to pay their money out for fines, especially when they "spike" it with liquor or something else that will make drunk come, and causing a demand for their wine by drinking people.

Mr. Will Vaughn and Fate Carter left last week on a visit down the country and if they find a job that suits them may spend some time.

Not long ago, it will be remembered that two members of the same church and brother-in-laws had a fight up in the neighborhood of Porter Springs. Last Saturday was the day set apart for them to meet the other members of the church and tell them all about it. After a statement from one of the erring brothers, who had ever since regretted the occurrence and now loved everybody, some one started the song of "Won't that be a happy meeting." At the close of the song all present had a happy appearance, and nothing more was said about the fight.

Most all preachers prefer money for what they tell you in the pulpit but we have a circuit rider in the county this year who will take anything that will do to eat, from a can of blackberries to a leg of mutton, so we are told. When he stays at a place until they become tired of him they get him up some mutton, knowing that he will cease preaching and carry it home before it spoils. Preachers are like persons of other occupations, if they are not at the top of the ladder they have many disadvantages, is why this one has to carry a knapsack on his horse as large as chicken coop.

Some months ago Jule Townsend, becoming tired of the mountains quit her husband here and went down to Gainesville and started up a "fancy" house. Week before last one of her favorite spices escorted her to Dahlonega for the purpose of attending Yaboola meeting. The good Lord sent a drenching rain, preventing the happy couple from finishing their pleasure trip. They returned to Gainesville, the woman leaving her children with relatives here so they would have nothing to bring about any trouble whatever. In a few days afterwards the children were sent home. Then she swore out a warrant for her husband charging him with desertion and put it in the hands of the sheriff of Hall county but there has been no arrest yet. Such conduct being allowed to go on unmolested by the devil proves that he is behind with his work.

As there has been a split and a division among the members of Mt. Lebanon church in Union county for some time, Revs. V. A. and James Higgins, of Lumpkin, went over last Saturday to preach and talk and see if they couldn't bring about peace and harmony so they would all sing and shout together and serve the Lord under the same roof. These visiting brothers thought that they had about stilled the troubled waters, but from parties from there this week we learn that things are in just as bad a shape as they were before. It is certainly a bad state of affairs in a civilized community. There are two factions of this church—Nelson and Crombie, each having a preacher trying to guide them safely to the golden gate, but it looks to us like it will be a difficult task under the present condition of the church or its members. Rev. Henry Garley preaches to the Nelson crowd in the church and Rev. Mr. Stover preaches and talks with the Crombie faction in a close by dwelling, both holding services on the same day. They split up a few years ago about a school. It got into the church and from there to the Superior court, Mr. and Mrs. Crombie being prosecuted for disturbing divine worship. The case was continued at the last term of Union Superior court by Judge Kinsey with the hopes that the matter would be settled. Nelsons crowd is willing for the Crombies to come back to the church provided they will make acknowledgements, and the Crombies are willing to go back, but won't agree to make any kind of acknowledgements. Here is more home work for some of the missionaries before they start off again to any foreign country.

AN AMATEUR DETECTIVE.

His First and Last Experience in Tracing a Crime.

"I never attempted the Sherlock Holmes business but once," said Blythe, "and although I ran down the person I was after the results were not at all pleasant. One morning I missed a scarfpin, a single pearl, worth about $50. I valued it as much for its associations than almost anything else I had. I decided to say nothing about it to my wife, because things of that sort always upset her. She suspects the servant and does not hesitate to let them see it. Advertising a reward brought no results. One morning nearly two years after the pin was lost I saw it in the window of a pawnshop not three blocks from my home. I knew the police captain of the precinct and induced him to send one of his ward men with me to the pawnshop. Matters were soon explained. I was able to prove my ownership of the pin. The pawnbroker consulted his books.

"That pin," he said, "was brought here by a woman who regularly pawns things here on commission. It is a business, the same as shopping on commission. Many persons, especially women, who find it necessary to raise a little money in a hurry, are afraid to go to the pawnshop.

"He gave me the usual address of the woman who pawned my pin, and I looked her up. 'I don't want to make any trouble for you,' I said, 'but that pin was stolen. I want you to give it to me and you'll not be the loser.'

"She complied willingly. She said she was sent for by a woman who had read her advertisement and was given the pin to pawn in the usual course of business. She got $20 for it, and after deducting her commission had paid the money over to her customer and given her the ticket. She went to the pawnshop nearest the house to save time. Not until we were at my own doorstep did I realize where the woman was taking me.

"Do you mean to say that you got the pin in this house?" I inquired. "Certainly," she replied. "It was given to me by a tall woman with red hair. If she still lives here I should know her in a minute."

"That will do," I said. "Here is $5 for your trouble. I shall be obliged by your not mentioning this incident to anybody."

"The woman she had described was my wife. We had a bad quarrel of an hour. She had pawned the pin to get money for a rascallion of a brother, who had since fled to Canada. He stole the ticket from her and had evidently been unable to sell it before he skipped. And the poor woman had been living in mental torture for months because she was afraid to tell me. That experience cured me of a hankering for the detective business."—New York Times.

A Few Palladromes. "It is a fascinating occupation," said a philologist, "to search the language for palladromes. A palladrome is a word that reads the same backward as forward. Rotator, for instance, is a palladrome. Several hundreds of these strange words are tabulated, and new ones are continually turning up in the English tongue. If you can find one send it to the Palladrome society of New York.

"I can rattle off extempore a dozen or two palladromes. Thus:

"Bab, refer, bib, Anna, tot, bob, peep, civic, tot, dad, madam, dead, pup, defied, sees, deved, tat, did, shabs, eye, revolver, eve, rotor, goz, pop, gig, gus, redder, level, noon, Otto, sexes."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Gambetta and Napoleon's Portrait. When Gambetta, accompanied by Jules Favre, arrived in the hall of the Hotel de Ville, where he was officially to read the proclamation of the third French republic, the crowd which followed the two deputies caught sight of a fine portrait of Napoleon III. hanging on a wall. They promptly took it down and were about to smash it to pieces when Gambetta intervened. Turning the portrait to the wall, he said, "My friends, we have put up with the original for twenty years. Let us be content today to turn his face to the wall. It is all he deserves."

Why, Then? "Did you finish your shopping today, my dear?" asks the model husband. "Yes, I think so," answers the trusting wife.

"You think so?" "Yes, I don't know, though. You see, I went to get my hat and there were so many and all of them so pretty that I got five of them."

"Five? Why did you do that?" "I really must have lost my head."

"In that case, why get a hat at all?"—Chicago Tribune.

Rules For Writers. Frederick W. Seward said that when he first started in at newspaper work Thurlow Weed said to him: "I will give you two rules to begin with. First, never write anything without some definite point and purpose; second, when you have written it, take your pen and go over it to see how many words and sentences you can strike out and how much you will thereby improve the article."

After the Honeymoon. He—We must try to keep up appearances. I suppose you don't want our friends to know that our marriage has been a failure? She—Oh, no. I wouldn't care to have them see that their anticipations have been realized.—New York Press.

Much as worthy friends add to the happiness and value of life, we must in the main depend on ourselves, and every one is his own best friend or worst enemy.

Nearly All Crippled.

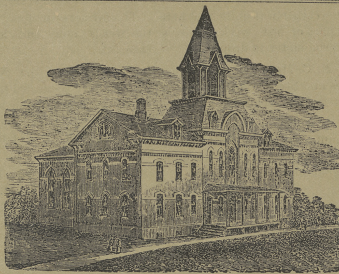

Most everybody has heard of Hot Springs. That is a great place to go and get cured of rheumatism. Most everybody that comes to the Springs is a cripple some way or the other. I never saw so many crippled people in all my life. Twisted arms and legs. I met a cross-eyed man, he looked crooked. At the hotel I stopped at they told me they had not bought any wood for ten years; the cripples that had some there and been cured had left crutches enough to keep them in wood. I was sick while I was there. I couldn't eat anything. After I had gone to every house in town they wouldn't let me eat. A particular friend of mine came to me and advised me to leave the town. He was the chief of police. I felt so bad I went to see a doctor. He said, "Do you want to be treated?" I answered, "Yes, that is, if you have it here in the office." He replied, "You don't understand me. I will examine you for twenty dollars."

Go ahead and do it, but if you find twenty I want ten." After he examined me he said, "You want to get glasses and wear them." I went down to a place where they use them. I'd taken three, I believe it was, when I started out. A fellow said, "Have another one with me." I did and I felt better. The next day I felt sick again. Went to see a doctor. He asked me what I had been eating. I told him nothing but honey. He said, "You've got the bites." He would have been a good doctor but he didn't have the "patients." He told me I would have to take something. He said, "Go take something right away." I went down the street, met a drunken man and took his watch, which was about all he had with him. They had me arrested; when they caught me the watch was still going. I went to see a lawyer. He got the case I got the works.—Carl Eng-furst.

Too Little Respect Shown for Law. Entirely too little respect is shown for law in America. In every state we find laws a nullity for policy's sake. Such a thing is unknown in any other land. Disregard of one law breeds disrespect for all law. In allowing some laws to go unenforced, we reap a harvest in having all laws broken. The law may not be to one's liking, but the answer, "It is the law," should be sufficient for the law abiding. Good men will observe even the bad laws, but bad men will break even good laws. It should be that all men, good and bad, be compelled to keep all law, good or bad, because it is the law. How careless people usually are as to whether laws are enforced or not. This lethargy gives rise to civic evils. Indeed nearly all public wrongs grow out of the people.—Joseph W. Folk.

Gray squirrels, generally four in a nest, are born in March or early April. They never venture forth from the nest during the first month, and are attended alone by the mother. She takes this task upon herself from choice, and does not allow another squirrel, even her own mate, to approach the nest.—Ex.

At the coming legislature a bill will be introduced by the representatives of Richmond county to hold the state and county election on the same day. This bill we are opposed to, because there is now more on some of the tickets than managers of elections can get through with in a day. Many precincts in the country have not even a court house and it would be hard on managers to sit a day and night on a log just because city people are prepared with all the accommodations and want it. It may be true that it might save some money. So it would if we only had annual courts. Really the present tickets are longer than an ordinary man can well handle.

Hon. Joe Hill Hall has at last decided to offer his services to the people of the state as governor.

President Roosevelt is going to visit Booker Washington's school soon and deliver an address.

Washington City has been selected as the place for peace meeting by Japanese and Russian governments.

Judge Russell is going to resign as judge of the Western circuit this fall. Better not. A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.

On Thursday of last week twenty-five divorce suits were disposed of in Fulton Superior court, showing that married life down that way is getting to be very unhappy.

Two negroes cooks in the Confederate war, attended the re-union at Louisville last week and wore the gaty, and attracted much attention on account of the many badges they wore.

The Georgia legislature meets next Wednesday, and then the fight for new counties will begin and cost the tax payers thousands of dollars, for it is going to take up much time before the matter is ended.

When you go to Atlanta don't pay attention to any pretended friends in that city. E. W. Bronch, of Hall county, was lured into the woods by two fellows the other night and knocked down and robbed.

The Walmsey game law to go into effect last week in Missouri makes it a misdemeanor with $25 fine for any one to use feathers on hats save those of chickens, ducks, the ostrich, English sparrows, crows and owls.

The Commerce News says that it is for Dick Russell and his nine children. It won't do to vote for every man for governor having a large family. "Shotgun" Walker, of Lumpkin county, has eleven children all living at home.

Lawrenceville recently lost her case against the express company for delivering liquor in her city. There seems to be no way to keep a company from delivering liquor in dry towns if the purchaser has the "seeds" or his credit is good.

Postmaster Weaver has sent in his resignation as postmaster at this place, resignation to take effect July 1st. It is almost a settled fact that J. A. Downs will receive the appointment as postmaster. This causes a vacancy in the Deputy Marshal's office, for which W. L. Boling has made application, and will, no doubt receive the appointment.—Blue Ridge World.

Preaching don't seem to do some of the boys any good over in Union county. A few nights ago as Monroe Chastain, Frank Davis and Bob, Charlie and Richard Ingram were returning from divine services they got into a big fight and tore up the ground around and about Mr. George Gurley's stables almost like a scooter play had been in use. They were all against Chastain. No one was seriously hurt.

The Supreme court of Georgia last week decided against ex-Sheriff M. O. Gilmer in the case which went from Hall county. The officer sued Hall county for certain costs accruing, it is stated, from account of conducting prisoners to and from trial. It is decided that this cost is to be paid as other cost—by the defendant if he is found guilty, and pays out, or from the insolvent cost fund otherwise.

Big Success of a Lumpkin County Boy.

Some years ago Mr. W. W. McAfee left Dahlonega, where he was born and raised, and went to Atlanta to better his condition financially speaking, and we are proud to see from a late issue of the Atlanta Daily News that he has succeeded. This is what it says:

"Dr. Will W. McAfee is proprietor of the Eureka Pharmacy, which today is one of the city's handsomest and most complete drug dispensaries, where Dr. McAfee is enjoying a large and lucrative share of the patronage of the city.

"On going into business for himself Dr. McAfee had a capital of only $500, out of which sum he bought fixtures for his drug store, leaving the small sum of $218 with which to purchase his stock of drugs and accessories. His experience and knowledge of that line of business enabled him to place on his shelves just the right amount of each drug and just the articles most used and called for to enable him to frequently turn over his small amount of capital, without having any dead stock on his hands. At this time the proprietor was prescription clerk, stock clerk, bookkeeper and porter; in short, he did all the work of the store.

"Rapidly, though substantially, the Eureka Pharmacy, under the experienced guidance of its first proprietor, who is its present owner and proprietor, Dr. McAfee, has risen into business prominence beyond comparison.

"The room at 180 Decatur street has undergone a complete remodeling, with a handsome front and the latest designed fixtures. The store room covers a floor space of 30 by 60 feet, on which is a linoleum covering. In the front of the store is a pretty soda fountain, from which all the popular soft drinks are dispensed.

"The business of this concern has reached such proportions that it is now necessary for them to keep regularly employed three clerks, two porters and a "rush" clerk.

"For the convenience of the patrons of this drug store, as well as of those who live in that immediate section of the city, a sub-postoffice station has been established in the Eureka Pharmacy, where stamps, postal cards and money orders can be procured.

"Dr. McAfee has always attended strictly to the purchase of all drugs to be sold at his place, giving this matter his personal attention. All his essential oils are imported from European countries, and all other drugs are selected with the greatest of care, with a view to their purity.

"Besides the regular stock of drugs always kept, there you will find a complete line of candies, cigars, stationery, soaps and everything that is usually kept by first class and up-to-date drug stores, thus enabling their patrons to get everything that they want without going to other places to look it up.

"Dr. McAfee is gaining for himself a national reputation on Anti-Mybi, a dental anaesthetic for the painless extraction of teeth and all minor surgical operations. This preparation is pronounced by all who have used it as one of the best compounds for purposes of this kind that has ever been on the market, and orders come on almost every mail from every part of the United States for it. The large number of testimonials that have come in to the doctor speaks volumes for the merits of his preparation.

"Personally, Dr. McAfee is a man of many traits of character that commend him to the confidence and esteem of the public. He is strictly business, yet always of a jovial disposition, and makes every one around him feel free and easy and as if they were in the "camp of a friend" when they come to his place of business, whether on a business or a social call."

Auraria Dots.

Prayer meeting at the Baptist church every Sunday night. Let the good work go on. May much good result from it.

Quite a number of our young people, among them: Messrs. Z. W. Summerour and C. E. Hutcherson, Misses Do'lie Davis, Anna and Amilda Summerour attended communion meeting down at Etowah church last Sunday. Quite a large crowd was present. The pulpit was filled by Rev. J. C. Higgins. The singing was conducted by that sweet singer, Mr. Homer Robison. All seemed to enjoy the occasion very much.

We think probably we will have a wedding to report from this section soon.

Mr. S. W. VanSyckel is expected here every day to commence work on the Etowah.

Success to THE NUGGET. We enjoy reading it very much.

If this doesn't find its way to the waste basket we will write again. GUESS WHO.

Harlie Ricketts in Jail.

For some time, nearly every day that Capt. H. D. Ingersoll left his office to go to dinner he missed some money, which he kept in a little tin trunk for convenience during the day on his desk. It was a mystery to the Captain, for he locked his door every time and was at a loss to know where it went to. After missing some more last Saturday he made a more closer examination, and upon going to a back window, which was never opened by him, he found that the sash was unlocked. This explained the whole mystery, proving that some one was getting in fine work at that building, as Mrs. Stead's watch had been stolen from a room above, some time ago. Capt. Ingersoll determined to put out a watchman, but didn't do so Monday, thinking that no one would enter the office while Mr. Stringer was at work on the pavement in front, yet they did and more money was gone when he came back from dinner. So on Tuesday he left John Adams in a back room in sight of the window while he went to dinner. The Captain had not reached home before Harlie Ricketts, a lad of fifteen or sixteen summers appeared, opened the blinds, raised the sash and went in and out in a very few minutes. When Captain Ingersoll returned he found some silver which he had marked, gone. He at once swore out a warrant for the boy and had him arrested by City Marshal Walker. He had already spent the nickel at Mr. Will Jones' store and the other marked piece was found in his pocket. The boy was carried to jail and his commitment trial set for tomorrow. On Wednesday after his imprisonment, the boy made a confession. He said at the different times that he had visited Capt. Ingersoll's office he got about $5.00, and that it was covered up in the dirt in a pocketbook containing $15 more under his father's barber shop together with Mrs. Stead's watch. They looked and recovered both. He said he was alone in committing the act.

They are getting after U. S. Collector Rucker with a sharp stick, and we hope to see him ousted from this important office in Georgia. We are tired of seeing white men working under him as collector who have to carry commissions in their pockets with this negro's name to them.

A man by the name of Davis, from Cooper's creek, in Union county, was captured by the city marshal out in the neighborhood of Slab Town Saturday night with forty gallons of whiskey, together with his wagon and mules. He was put in jail and on Monday pleaded guilty to a violation of the city ordinance and was fined $100.00 by Mayor Hall and turned loose.—Blue Ridge World.

The child labor bill will be advocated in the legislature again.

It cost a negro visitor $5 to spit on a sidewalk in Macon the other day.

An African fly has caused 40,000 deaths in that country, so it is believed.

On Monday morning the prisoners room in Atlanta was packed so full of negroes that one was overcome and fainted.

On the 19th 1,000 homing pigeons were released at Mt. Airy, Ga., and commenced their long journey to Baltimore, Md.

Last Saturday, during an excursion on the Southern, a number of negroes got into a fight and eleven lost their lives.

Russia is out of money with no chance to borrow, and wants peace but the Japs are moving forward for another big fight before any steps are taken in this direction.

Some of the Georgia editors have suspended their papers this week in order to attend the press convention at Cordale. Such as this will never do. Work before play or pleasure.

The Georgia Educational Association convenes in Athens the 20, 27 and 28th of June. The interesting program is before us and all who go will no doubt enjoy themselves.

Although the annual cost of the legislature is about $75,000, there is enough money on hand in the treasury and no state banks to pay the members of the legislature without the governor having to borrow it.

Ed. NUGGET: There is a wild "varment" around Wahoo, a little larger than a dog and much longer, been seen around here for some time. It kills chickens, dogs, cats and pigs; travels both night and day. It passed through Mr. A. W. Barnes' yard last Sunday just at dark. Messrs. Thomas Parke, Eugene Stinger, and a crowd of others, came with their dogs not more than half an hour after it passed Mr. Barnes' and ran it till daylight, on hot track all the time. The hounds were getting tired and lost the track and we had to give it up. If any one has some good hounds, come down and we will give it another chase.

The re-union at Louisville last week was a big affair, attended by thousands of people. The grand parade of old veterans was three miles long. Ambulances were scattered along the line for the safety of old soldiers, in case of sickness.

People will always have room to grumble about money being scarce as long as they send cash away for goods and other things that can be had right here at home.

Last Saturday Col. W. P. Price, president of the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College, received a message for him to be in Athens by Monday and meet the University board. He left Sunday.

Mr. Charlie McDonald, who has been doing business for a mercantile firm in Gainesville for several years, passed through Dahlonega last week for Porter Springs, where he will open out a store.

Another church trial took place at the Baptist church a few nights ago. All the defendants were present and made acknowledgements and were restored but one. This one sent in a note requesting that a full board be called together for the purpose of trying him. His case was continued but if he fails to appear at a fixed time this week his bond will likely be forfeited and the devil will have charge of him.

A number of Dahlonega's citizens attended services out in the country at Yahola church last Sunday where they had an old time singing by Uncle Marvin Grizzle, preaching by Revs. Dowdy and West and shouting by some of the good old members. Many people were present. Not a drop of liquor was known to be carried there by any one and the best of order prevailed, causing it to be a day of much pleasure by all present.

Although there were services at the white churches last Sunday, several men and women congregated at the colored Methodist church. Young John Forest was there and because Charlie Roberts started to escort one of Jim Adams' daughters home it made the young lover mad and he resented considerably. Mrs. Adams interfered and the young man shoved her to one side right in the church. Services ended and all got out into the yard. Charlie went home with the girl, and the marshal, after using his billie, went to the calaboose with the mad man, who sang and swore so loud during the night that no one in that neighborhood got to sleep any scarcely. Next day it was ten dollars and cost or sixty days on the streets. Had these lovers been at either of the other churches built for them maybe this trouble would not arose.

The government surveyors have rented four rooms in the Consolidated Co.'s hotel and are now stopping there. They will be in Dahlonega a month or more yet completing their work.

Prof. F. O'Bryne, of Colorado, who was recently elected to the chair of electrical and mining engineering, of the N. G. A. College, will be here the first of July. This important department has recently been added to this institution.

One day last week a man and woman came riding into town down the Clarksville road in a buggy. They were strangers. As soon as they alighted and the horse was cared for they took in the town, hand in hand, looking as loving and happy as two twins going to a picnic. The man said that they were from Forsyth county, but some thought it was a mistake. He inquired the nearest point to a railroad. When told that Gainesville was the place. He said that he came from that city and didn't want to go back. It is said that in coming to Dahlonega they lost the way and went to Cleveland. Their actions cause some to believe that they were a runaway couple. Where they went or when they left here we do not know.

News comes from Frogtown district that Uncle James Grindle swore out a warrant a few days ago for Ben Self, because he tore down his (Grindle's) fence and dug up his mill road. Squire George White issued the warrant. The warrant was placed in Constable Cobb Grindle's hands and the trial set for the next day. Before the trial, Mr. White left out, saying that he was going to his upper place to work that day, and the next time he was heard from he was near Noah White's, up under the Blood Mountain. So Uncle Jim and the bailiff was at the law ground with the prisoner and no body to try him, and the man was released. Then the constable took Uncle Jim and started to look after the Squire. Rev. D. W. Caldwell was at work near by, who heard them coming and ran out thinking that it was John Ricketts on his first trip on the R. F. D. Route. Later the Squire came in and made the case up by the officers giving their cost.

Prof. Calloway moved away this week.

During court week here some one brought in some whiskey and all those who drank it got sick, several of them not wanting any since. It is said to be equal to the Keely cure and much cheaper.

Mr. Meaders has notified the company that he must have more pay if he keeps the telephone office here. A big company like the Bell Telephone ought to be willing to pay a reasonable compensation for this work.

It looks mighty bad to see a member of the church after having family prayer, get out on the streets under the influence of liquor. It is impossible for any one to succeed in serving the Lord and devil at the same time.

Parties who visit the cemetery to throw rocks had better stop it before they get into trouble. Not long ago a monument erected by Mr. Gordon Head was hit several times and a glass pitcher broken which contained flowers. Heathens wouldn't be guilty of such conduct as this.

The Queen of the Mountains, Porter Springs, is starting off well this season. There are more guests there now than were ever there before at this date. The telephone line is now in fine order, having been thoroughly overhauled and the guests are able to talk to their people at home, no matter where they are. Our sentiment is, "Long live the Queen of the Mountains."

On Monday morning while Maj. Tilson was driving his team attached to a wagon down towards Wimpy's mill, the team ran away and one horse pushed the other off of the high bank this side of the mill. The other animal came running home through town with the breast yoke striking his legs every jump. The people ran down the road to see if the Major was hurt, but were glad to learn that he had jumped out of the wagon and was safe and sound.

Hands have been engaged for several days clearing off and preparing the park for the fiddler's convention, which takes place on the 22nd of July. In 1845, during the presidential campaign, a big barbecue and speaking took place at this cool spring where the fiddlers will meet. It is a lovely place and the occasion will be a most enjoyable affair. It has already gotten to be a most favorite resort for many of our citizens on Sundays.

They had a big meeting up at Mt. Pisgah church last Sunday. Usually at this place during religious services some people go after drinking liquor and some times carry along a little flask to "wet their whistles" with after arriving. On this occasion none could be smelled even, and everybody behaved themselves nicely. Revs. Mesbarn Ash and John Turner preached. However, on his way home, one member, who claims to be a sort of a christian, got full of corn juice.

Anderson & Jones have just received a new lot of clothing. Any one wishing a suit will find it to their interest to give them a call.

Profs. Steed, Barnes and Mr. Bob Meaders went up on the Blood Mountain and slept the other night in order to see the sun rise from that high point but it was cloudy the next morning and they were disappointed.

There are a number of visitors who desire to come here and spend the summer if they could get suitable accommodations. Why don't some enterprising person open out a summer home here so as to let these people come and be with us?

Prof. Ferguson had a mess of roasting ears on Friday last. And, by the way, the Professor is not only a vegetable raiser, but has plenty of fine chickens. About one hundred little chicks can be seen about his premises now.

Mrs. Ferguson and all the rest of the assistant teachers in the Dahlonega Public school, have been re-elected. The same teachers, who have been in charge of the colored school for several years, was also re-elected by the school board.

Got your old fiddle in tune and have it in good shape by the time the fiddler's convention convenes in Dahlonega, which is the 22nd day of July. It will be a pleasant occasion for all who come. Arrangements are being made to make every visitor happy. Now, don't forget the day and date—Saturday, July 22nd.

Mr. Ashley drove into our city last Monday, being the first time he has been here for some weeks. Among his callers were some of the applicants for the Dahlonega post-office. Mr. Ashley might undertake to slip in and escape their notice but their ever watchful eye would catch him.

Mr. J. F. Moore is preparing to wall up and cement the old Public spring and put it in fine shape again. In the days gone by this favorite spring has furnished thousands of gallons of water to quench the thirst of all who visited it. We are glad to see this, for a good cool spring is not often seen in a town or city.

It is hard to tell what will become of boys who start out wrong. Several months ago Ben Adams was sent off from this county to a kind of a reformatory for stealing a gun. Not long ago his term of imprisonment expired. And a few days ago he stole a pair of shoes and a watch in Gainesville and this time will have to work hard in the chain gang for a term of ten months.

We are proud to see that Mrs. Blanch Cannon has been appointed postmistress at Porter Springs, Ga. This is a good change, and we hope to see other changes in some of the country post-offices in Lumpkin county, and persons put in charge of them who can read and write. There is bound to always be trouble as long as persons have charge of them who scarcely know their A B C's.

Some one entered Mr. John Moore's basement the other night and carried off nearly a whole ham of meat, and about the same time Geo. Sissam tells us that two men broke into his house. George weighs only about 95 or 100 pounds but when he got after the midnight prowlers they left in a hurry. The little man has since procured a gun and is now ready to give them a dose of shot should they come again.

We print letter-heads, envelopes and all other kind of stationery as cheap and as nice as the work can be done in Gainesville, Atlanta or any other city, saving the patron the freight or express. But all who have written for prices elsewhere have no doubt found this out. Even if we did add freight wouldn't it be best to patronize a home industry instead of sending your money off out of the county? Why any body wishes to do this we can't see.

The program for the fiddler's convention will be published next week.

Vernon Moore has gone on a two week's visit to his relatives at Rome, Ga.

We understand that a union picnic of the Sunday schools will soon take place at the new park.

A child of Mr. Will Collins, who moved from Lumpkin county, died near Warsaw a few days ago.

Mr. J. F. Moore will soon add another story to his dwelling over the dining room and kitchen.

Our county has a local rain every day somewhere and the crops are looking very well now.

As we go to press another sensation is developing which will likely become press news by next week.

One fiddler uses his bow until about 12 o'clock every night here getting ready for the fiddler's convention.

Mrs. L. Q. Meaders will soon leave on a visit to her sons at Watkinsville, Ga., with the expectation of being gone until August.

Mr. D. O. Johnson and Mr. Ben. Hylen, of New Bridge, were up to Dahlonega awhile on Tuesday. They report crops in very fine condition down their way.

There is going to be some repairs made up at the Girl's Dormitory and if you wish to do the work it will be well for you to read an ad. in this issue under head of "Notice to Contractors."

Col. Baker is getting ready to begin his canning factory. He is building it on his town lot on a small scale, and if the business proves as profitable as the Colonel expects he will enlarge it later on.

Mr. Newt. Mays and his family went on a visit the other day, leaving thirty-five fine chickens in the coop. When they returned all the chickens were gone. Some watchful thief had got in his work.

Not long ago a negro preacher said in Dahlonega that the spirit had called him to come here and preach, although he admitted that he had not done any good. Strange to say, however, that he was directed to the brother or sisters house, having the finest and most yellow-legged chickens.

Parties who visited the State University commencement from Dahlonega, stated that a son of Mr. Ang McDonald, a former citizen of Lumpkin county, delivered the best speech made. Although he does not live in this county now, we are always glad to hear of any person going from our county, succeeding in anything.

Sheriff Davis went down this week after John Chatten, whose term in the penitentiary expired yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. Some years ago John was one of the parties who broke into Mr. John Bennett's store in Lumpkin county. A post-office was kept in the store, and as the U. S. officials got hold of him first, is why he has not been troubled by the state officials until now.

The negro Methodist preacher, who uses a robe in the pulpit and a fan during the day, after being here for several days is gone, however, not before he helped to devour poor Arthur Singleton's last favorite pet chicken. And when it was put before him he went through his grace ceremony long and loud enough to cause some to think likely that he was preaching a funeral.

Mr. W. C. Keenum, formerly of Lumpkin county, who went up into White to build a dredge boat for Mr. J. J. Blow, has quit and returned to his home near Warsaw. He and Mr. Blow had a falling out. Mr. Keenum said that Mr. Blow didn't want him to go and see his sick child and he went any way. Mr. Keenum thinks more of his sick child than he did of his salary of $75 per month and board. Mr. John Redmond will complete the boat, which will take about two weeks.

Mining News.

The Crissum mine is still being operated by its owner profitably. Billie Campbell, down at the Singleton, never has much to say, but the rich ore being run through the mill both day and night and the splendid weekly clean ups tell the tale.

We are glad to be able to state that all the mines in operation in this county now are paying but one, and it would if it was properly conducted. What other kind of business can beat this?

Messrs. Bell and Bracket are engaged in cleaning out the old Castberry shaft this side of Auraria and are expecting to strike the vein which produced so much gold some years ago, very soon.

Mr. Louis Strauss was here Monday examining the records of the clerk of the Superior court so as to enable him to learn who owns certain lots of land in this county so he can procure the right of way for a canal expected to be cut to the Hix property, which will be mined for gold.

Mr. Craig R. Arnold, of the Southern Power and Milling Co., writes us from Philadelphia that he will leave for Georgia about the 6th of July. Soon after that the company will receive its charter, when an organization will take place enabling business to commence.

In reply to our Baltimore patron's enquiry about the McCluskey mine we will state that it is located in Hall county more than 25 miles away, and we learn that no work has been done at it for some time. Mr. H. D. Jaquish, Gainesville, Ga., its former owner, can tell you who possesses it now. We cannot.

The McAfee-Lind mine is not included in the deal of the new company being organized known as the Southern Power and Milling Co., as it was first expected, but the other valuable property it has contains several hundred acres, which will furnish business for the company for many years to come.

While Mr. Wharton Anderson, manager of the Calhoun mine, was in Dahlonega last Sunday, he showed us a large bottle of gold, containing several hundred penny-weights, just as it was panned from the sluice way during last Saturday's clean up. It was in all kinds of shapes and sizes, being pretty enough and in a sufficient quantity to give most any one the gold fever.

Another big party of capitalists are expected down this week from the West to look over the Bunker Hill property. The close attention given this property by the managers is causing it to receive much notice by men of means who wish to invest in mining property. When a person or persons take hold of a business, not having "too many irons in the fire" you may expect them to succeed.

They steamed up down at the Barlow last week and things out that way present a lively appearance. Wood choppers are in the forest getting fuel for the engine, miners are busy taking out ore for the teamsters to convey it to the mill to supply the stamps which will soon run both day and night, causing the old Barlow to present the busy and live appears it did some years ago when it was in charge of Mr. John Hall who cleaned up thousands of penny-weights monthly.

In reply to an enquiry about the Crown Mountain mine again, will say that some work is still going on and the mill is being run only part of one shift. The mill needs repairing and ought to be attended to. The mine has not been paying expenses nor won't until some better system is adopted. When business methods are used at the Crown Mountain it will pay, and not before. People making investments should look after their interests. If any of the stockholders were to buy a farm and after planting it pay no further attention to the business, what kind of results could they expect?

Good Advice for Boys.

Judge Wofford, of Kansas City, in a recent address to boys gave advice which if heeded would soon revolutionize the country. It should be read by every boy in the United States:

"I have been on the bench fourteen years, and during that time thousands of boys have been brought before me, but not one of them was a constant attendant at church on Sunday school or obedient to his father and mother. I have inquired of many boys what caused them to get into trouble and have found that in most instances staying away from home and school, playing pool, hanging around saloons and cigarette smoking are responsible.

"Start right, boys. To be anybody, to accomplish anything for yourself or the community you cannot be idle. Don't swear—gentlemen do not. It is low and vulgar. Don't read trashy literature. It leads to the devil. Don't hang around saloons. Good men are not that way. Benjamin Franklin would never have accomplished anything if he had been guilty of these practices. Above all things, be honest. Poor boys make the best future citizens.

"To make a good man you must be a good boy; so start right. The graveyards are filled with those who started wrong. The world is growing better. The teachings of Christ are being felt. Let me impress upon you the only road to success is by living a right life. Be honest, industrious and frugal. It is not necessary to be sanctimonious—to wear a long face. Keep laughing, have a good time as you go through life, but let it be the right sort of good time."

Give the girls and boys a chance on the farm. Set aside an acre or so of land for them, give them time to take care of it and whatever is raised let them sell it and keep the money. Give them to understand it is their land to do with as they choose but help them with your advice. It will make farm life more pleasant for them and they will take a greater interest in the whole farm. To fact it would be a good idea to offer a prize if what they raised was of particular excellence. If you have never tried this do it now and your boys and girls will take a pride in their little farm.

OBESITY A DISEASE.

Vigorous Measures For Its Removal Should Be Taken.

At middle age certain organs lose functional activity and drain and waste away, demanding less blood and nerve energy. This decreased need for nutrition, if not heeded, will result in taking into the body more food than can be utilized and used either to build up tissue or for the generation of heat and energy. The result is fatness, liver and other excretory organs are overworked in the effort to remove the body wastes and become diseased, says a writer in the Housekeeper. Then nature shows us in this fat material in the form of fat in the body spaces, between the sheets of the muscles and in every other old corner in the body where it can be stored away. In this fat tissue, wastes collect and out of it comes out muscle, gland and other normal tissues and takes their place. This is what is known as fatty degeneration and always shortens life, causing often a sudden death from heart failure, apoplexy, diabetes or kidney disease.

The generation of electric energy requires a certain amount of heat and when coming from an active out of door occupation is a necessary by-product. When the amount of food should be cut down from one's diet to enable, especially avoiding fats and sweets, also soft foods, which tend to generate heat from the body, and thus to hasten the process of fatty degeneration. No wine, beer or alcoholic drink or tea or coffee should be used. At meals even the use of water should be restricted. Heat and deep breathing practiced to increase the intake of oxygen and burn up and oxidize bodily waste matter.

For those women who are excessively yet retain a fair amount of physical vigor, the day should begin with a cold bath, plunge, spray, cold towel rub or sponge bath, after which should be an active exercise in the form of work, either in the open air or in a well ventilated room, horseback riding, bicycling or a brisk walk for an hour or more. Exercise in a well ventilated gymnasium may be substituted for the out of door, but is not so effective and tiring.

A leading Baltimore preacher has somewhat stirred the fashionable folks of that city by declaring that hereafter he will not rehearse the marriage ceremony under any circumstances for two reasons. First, he says, that where the ceremony is gone through with and the proper responses are made at a so-called rehearsal, the marriage has actually occurred and the obligations are just as binding as any subsequent ceremony could possibly make them. In the next place, he says, modern weddings are becoming altogether too showy and theatrical, the effect being that they lose their solemnity.

Since the city council of Forsyth, Ga., has passed an ordinance prohibiting the Southern Express Co. from delivering any liquor there, a firm has opened a liquor distributing house in Alabama, which proposes to supply the wants of the Forsyth people. It is a hard matter to keep liquor out of the reach of those who drink it.

The way to be happy though a farmer is to grow cowpeas, alfalfa, oats and corn not to sell but to feed to cattle, mules and hogs, then drive the finished product of your farm to market. Plant about one-third of your acreage in cotton and low prices for that staple will be a thing of the past and you and your family will wax fat and prosperous.—Ex.

Chickens hatched in an incubator are free from lice. This is, at least, one great advantage over hatching with old hens.

NOTICE TO DEBTORS AND CREDITORS.

Georgia, Lumpkin County. All persons having claims or demands against the estate of W. K. P. Head, late of said county, deceased, are hereby required to render to the undersigned an account of their demands as required by law, and all persons indebted to said estate to make settlement with the undersigned. Periodic Pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are a most remarkable remedy for the relief of periodic pains, backache, nervous or sick headache, or any of the distressing aches and pains that cause women so much suffering. As pain is weakening, and leaves the system in an exhausted condition, it is wrong to suffer a moment longer than necessary, and you should take the Anti-Pain Pills on first indication of an attack.

If taken as directed you may have entire confidence in their effectiveness, as well as in the fact that they will leave no disagreeable after-effects.

They contain no morphine, opium, chloral, cocaine or other dangerous drugs.

"For a long time I have suffered greatly with spells of backache, that seem almost more than I can endure. These attacks come on every month, and last two or three days. I have never been able to get anything that would give me much relief, until I began the use of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and they always relieve me in short time. My sister, who suffers the same way, has used them with the same results."—MRS. E. L. FARMER, 721 S. Michigan St., South Bend, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills are sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first package will benefit. If it fails he will return your money. 25 cents, 50 cents. Never sold in bulk. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Making Shot.

Watt, the inventor of leaden shot, once fell into a drunken sleep and dreamed that it was raining molten lead, which in falling took the shape of millions of peas. When he awoke he determined to try the effect of dropping molten lead from a considerable height, in accordance with the conditions of his dream. The result was an exact fulfillment of what he had pictured in his sleep, and his experiment were the foundation upon which he was able to build up a substantial fortune. After cooling shot is sifted to separate the sizes and polished by rotary motion in small octagonal boxes.

About the Suches Church Trouble.

SUCHES, GA.,
June 20th, 1905.

En. NUGGET:

Having seen in the last issue of THE NUGGET a reference to the trouble in Mt. Lebanon church, I beg that you will please allow me space in your valuable paper to give a short narrative of the discussion.

I desire to do this for the following reasons: First, that the causes of the trouble and the division that accrued therefrom may come before the public for a sane and religious consideration. Second, that the honest reader may decide for himself, which is the church—the majority or the minority. Third, for the sake of the Cause of Christ, since it has and will involve other churches before it is settled.

As was stated in THE NUGGET, the origin of this trouble occurred in an attempt to elect a teacher for the Mt. Lebanon school; but which resulted in general confusion.

A school trustee who was also a deacon of Mt. Lebanon church, wrote a statement concerning the trouble and why there had been no election held for a teacher for this school to the county Board of Education. A portion of this report was false, or at least to my own personal knowledge, two of our most honest and upright church members testified to that effect, and more over, I read the affidavits of two others of like character to the same effect. The consequences were, it meant to the church. This deacon at first tried to set up the evidence, but failed. Then claimed it was a personal matter between himself and two other members and that they ought to have taken "Gospel steps," that is, they ought to have come to him privately, and if peace could not have been made, then to have brought others, as the Bible directs. On the other hand, the offended party claimed that it was a public offense and must be dealt with publicly and could not possibly be settled privately.

I would ask you, honest reader, which would the above offense be—public or private? Suppose these two brethren had gone to the defendant, as we may call him not to persecute, and suppose he had made all the acknowledgments necessary, could they have received it? Was not the whole church offended? Or at least should it not have been offended. And was not the acknowledgement due to the whole church, since the whole sub-district, in fact, the greater portion of two counties, understood that there was a hurt between these members? Yes, worse than that, that there was a falsehood between them. In as much as the crime had been committed publicly was it not justice to the offended and the church that an open and frank confession be made for same?

The pastor espoused the deacon's cause and claimed that the offending must go to the deacon, and further more declared that their objection to fellowship would deprive them of taking an active part until the trouble was settled. Think of it. Suppose the whole church should see a member intoxicated, according to this ruling there would be no chance to deal with that member. Because we become offended, does that disqualify us of working in the church?

The rules of the church provide that "conference shall be opened by singing or prayer." At the next conference after the ruling above mentioned by the moderator, the pastor went into conference without observing this rule. One of the offended party called his attention to this fact, whereupon he was ordered by the moderator to take his seat and not to disturb him (that is the moderator in his conference) any more. Then another member made a motion to remove the moderator from the seat and elect another, whereupon the moderator cries out, "Is there a bullfinch in the house?" One having responded, he further declares, "Arrest them." This however was not done.

Now I would ask your reader whose conference was it? If the moderator needed protection why not have called on the church for it? Again where does the moderator derive his authority? Has not the church the right to make any motion it deems proper? And does not the church constitution provide that every motion duly seconded shall come before the church for its consideration?

The abusive, tyrannical words of the moderator above referred to caused the church to divide—some justifying others condemning the same. The majority were on the pastor's side and the minority were helpless. The latter asked that sister churches be called to take the matter in hand and try to settle it this the majority opposed.

There being several visiting church members present, some carried the cause to their respective churches, and two churches responded by voluntarily sending a committee to aid in counsel and at the same time stating their reasons for sending same. This committee was rejected by the majority.

Next certain members of the minority impeached the pastor of falsehood and ask for a chance to prove it. This was also denied.

Next the minority made an accusation in writing to the majority claiming that they, that is, the majority, had departed from the written rules and regulation of the church and Bible and that if they did not abide by the same, that they (the minority) would withdraw from them. The majority considered this church contempt and excluded the minority for same. The minority peacefully came away and have been holding services in a private dwelling ever since; while the majority are holding services in a near by school house, the church house having been burned in the heated part of this excitement.

The minority represented in the association to which the church belonged and was recognized after an investigation as being the true church. The majority did not represent, for reasons unknown to the writer.

Later on, however, the minority, through the advice of other churches, called a committee to further investigate their workings as a church. This committee also pronounced the minority to be the true church. This caused the majority to also call a committee, which also pronounced them to be the true church and their works correct "with the exception of a few errors."

The pastor (before the church was split) claimed that he was disturbed by certain members of the minority and therefore he has appealed to the Superior court for protection. Judge Kinsey at the last term of Union Superior court put off this case in the hope that it might be settled before another term of the court; but so far, lit-

THE GREAT FAMILY MEDICINE

Theodore's Black-Draught comes nearest regulating the entire system and keeping the body in health than any other medicine made. It is always ready in any emergency to treat ailments that are frequent in any family, such as indigestion, biliousness, colds, diarrhoea, and stomach aches.

Theodore's Black-Draught is the standard, never-failing remedy for stomach, bowel, liver and kidney troubles. It is a cure for the domestic life which so frequently summons the doctor. It is as good for children as it is for grown persons. A dose of this medicine every day will soon cure the most obstinate case of dyspepsia or constipation, and when taken as directed brings quick relief.

DANVILLE, N. C., 23-1002.
Theodore's Black-Draught has been our family doctor for twenty years, and we want no other. When any of us feel badly we take it once and are all right in twelve hours. We have spent lots of money for doctor bills, but got along just as well with Black-Draught. L. H. BAKER.

Ask your dealer for a package of Theodore's Black-Draught and if he does not keep it send it to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed to you.

THEODORE'S BLACK DRAUGHT

It has been done. The Abernombies have proposed to pay the cost if the prosecutor will withdraw the case. This he refuses to do unless the Abernombies will come back to the majority and acknowledge that they did wrong in withdrawing from the church. This they refuse to do.

Think about trying to force people to acknowledge their wrongs by manhandling them by the iron grasp of the law!

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE with fine. Use 1/2 tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot. First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg if you like to be used as a settler, then follow one of the following rules:
1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.
2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.

3. (Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. Don't use water that has been boiled before.)
1st. With Eggs. The yolk of an egg, mixed with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.
2d. With Cold Water. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.) (Lion-head on every package.) (Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

News From Porter Springs.

Porter is lively with visitors. Well, the farmers of this part are now ready to lay by.

James Anderson, of Frogtown district, killed nineteen rattlesnakes last week, and then came a big boy at his house the same week, and Jim can be heard singing "Bye-o-baby" now all the time.

Mr. John Ridley was over on Sunday. He rides the mail six days in the week and now and then carries a female out on Sunday. This shows that John is a hustler. Sherman Anderson came near being bitten by a rattlesnake's pit the other night while out cow hunting. It struck his pants leg twice and Sherman at once decided that he did not need any milk and was soon at home singing, "How firm a foundation."

Well, Mr. Editor, it looks like we have one whole family up here that will have to go to the poor house to keep from starving to death. They won't work any. Or would it be a good idea to vagrant them and put them to work?

Gaddistown's Views.

The celebration is certainly progressing nicely at Lebanon. Every one seems to be taking an interest and we have "great expectations" for a real good time. Last Saturday the people met and prepared the grounds and building. They are sure getting ready to entertain every one who comes, and from all appearances there will be one of the largest gatherings that Canada has ever witnessed. The people are preparing for the largest thing ever before, and if rations hold out they will sure have it. It seems as if the rations of Canada and Gaddistown have been exhausted, for the mail carrier tells us that they are about to worry him to death carrying packages of candy, ginger cakes and other good things from Dahlonega. We hope the people will get all they want, but we are sorry for the mail carrier.

Last Sunday the singers met at Lebanon school house to practice and there was some good singing. Mr. G. W. Gaddis was the leader. There was also a march in which about sixty of Canada and Gaddistown's best young folks. The speakers for the occasion are too well known for us to comment on.

Every one who can come are invited, and from what we can learn, it seems as if every one is going to take advantage of the invitation.

The box dinner will consist of candy, chicken, pies, eggs and an endless variety of good things, and will be one of the greatest features of the occasion. Victory.

As we expected, The "Twentieth Century Flyer" on the Lake Shore railroad, while running at the rate of 56 miles an hour, ran into an open switch the other night and killed 22 passengers. Better go slow.

Miss Myrtle Weaver, of Dahlonega, is on a visit to relatives here.

Mr. J. H. Summerour is the first one of our farmers to get through laying by corn. Mr. Summerour is a hustler and never fails to be up with the times.

Mr. Hayne Palmour, of Gainesville, together with his Sunday school class of ten little boys, came up one day last week and had a little fishing, etc., on the Etowah river.

Rev. R. D. Smith filled his regular appointment at the M. E. church here last Sunday evening.

Mr. Brackett, the singer, of White county, is expected to be at the Baptist church here next Sunday. This church has one of the best singing classes in the county, and with the aid of a good leader from the outside, a treat is in store for all lovers of good singing next Sunday. Everybody is invited to come.

Our little town has been pretty lively for the last few days with mining men, here looking over our mines. Our gold mines can't help but attract the attention of the capitalists.

A permanent injunction was granted and Gen. Warner and Mr. Carlie each fined $250 and Mr. J. F. Sargent $50 for contempt of court, by not suspending work when the temporary injunction was granted.

Near Buford this week three negroes tried to kill Thomas Davenport, of Toccoa, Ga., because he would not give them the secrecy of free masonry. They left him hanging for dead.

There now seems to be a possibility for a railroad from Suwanee to Nacoochee Valley, via Cumming, Dawsonville, Dahlonega and Cleveland to the Valley. The only thing in the way will be the failure of the counties through which the road will run to comply with the terms offered by the company proposing to build the road. —Clarkeville Advertiser.

The board of trustees of the N. G. A. College met last Monday afternoon and re-elected Miss Merritt to the chair of Modern Languages. This completes the election of teachers except one for the department of Music and Art which has just been established. This great institution grows more important and beneficial every year.

The matter between Mr. G. D. Bruce and Mr. Will Worley was amicably settled by an arbitration last week. The arbitrators were Messrs. J. E. McGee, W. P. Price, Jr., and John H. Moore. In taking stock Mr. Bruce found that his goods ran short, something like $87 during the four months that Mr. Worley had been clerking and assisting the owner in the store. It seems that neither one are expert bookkeepers and the arbitrators made a decision for Mr. Worley to pay Mr. Bruce $50. At the same time exonerating him from any criminality, yet declared that Mr. Bruce was perfectly justifiable in having the investigation made.

We will again request all persons not to ask us to keep their names out of THE NUGGET when they get into trouble. We treat all alike, ourselves not excepted.

Bob Barret, of White county, was bound over by Com. Baker here last Saturday, charged with illicit distilling, a still having been found near his premises recently.

Sheriff Davis went out to Jasper, Ga., last Saturday after John Darby, who was in jail there, arrested on a Lumpkin county warrant, charging him with stealing gold ore down at the Barlow mine some years ago.

John Tolbert paid one dollar and cost last Monday morning by order of Mayor Baker for having cursed out Sumie Forest on Saturday night. Both liking the same girl caused the racket, or in other words, a woman was at the bottom of it as usual.

Last week, while working alone in the mines across the Findley Ridge, a cave of about two tons dropped in the hole or incline where Mr. W. C. Thomas works. Although "G verner" is troubled with rheumatism and old age, he hopped up on the pile of dirt like a ship riding the waves of the ocean and was not hurt but pretty badly scared.

We understand that Mr. Upshaw, who created such a stir here some time ago in religious matters and raised a considerable amount of money, some of it cash down, will be here in a short while to finish collecting up. Our opinion is, he did more harm than good, taking into consideration the amount of trouble it has caused the church, and we guess it will be a long time before he collects it all.

Lester Cavender, of Dahlonega, was arrested by City Marshal Walker last Saturday and lodged in jail on a warrant sworn out by Mr. J. H. Moore, charging him with getting money under false pretense. Some time ago Lester was at work down at the Briar Patch mine as a mechanic. He went to Mr. Moore to borrow $5.00, stating that he wanted it to pay on a mortgage to save his mother's home from selling and that the company was owing him a certain amount and he would pay it as soon as he received the money. It seems that Lester didn't want to pay on the mortgage, but attended a shooting match and used his gun at a dollar a shot. Pay day rolled round, the young man got his money, but not as much as he represented to Mr. Moore that was due him. This he spent, without paying any on the debts of borrowed money which he had gotten from time to time until it amounted to about $20. Then Lester promised to pay Mr. Moore so much a week out of the wages he got from Col. Farrow, up at Porter, since. This he didn't do. On Monday the matter was compromised.

There is some talk of the Consolidated Co.'s hotel being leased yet and opened out to the public. Not only as a summer house but permanently.

The Baptist Sunday school will have a picnic at the new park next Friday. The Methodist and Presbyterians have been invited to take a part as well as everybody else who enjoy these happy occasions.

It gives us pleasure to be able to state that the Sunday school, which was organized up at Concord last year, is largely attended and in a very prosperous condition. Mr. E. B. Crisson is the superintendent, with an attendance numbering about seventy-five.

New cabbage have been in for several days. We have heard nothing this season of the cabbage worm scare. Meat is some cheaper than usual and if people will use it in cooking cabbage without too much economy they will never suffer from pain or scare.

Mr. Drew Hollifield, of Dunwoody, Ga., was up last week, visiting the place of his childhood days. He left here in 1867 and many changes have taken place since his departure. Most of the faces are new to him now, nevertheless it is a pleasure for him to come, and we are always glad to see him.

Some don't seem to understand the fiddlers convention that is to take place at the park on the 22nd of July, thinking that there is going to be a dance. This is not the case. It is for the purpose of all musicians who play old time music without the notes, to meet and let judges say who is the best fiddler in the crowd.

Sheriff Davis, who went down to Atlanta after John Chatten, reached Dahlonega safe with his prisoner last Friday afternoon. Chatten already having made two bonds could not give another only by an order of Judge Kinsey. The Judge permitted it and on Tuesday the following persons signed his bond and he was released: Rev. John W. Rider, Miles Berry and Jess Chatten. The bond was $500.

We were at a loss to know why Uncle Bill Bryson had not been to town for several weeks, but upon inquiry last Saturday, found out. He has been sick from a fright, and the following explains the cause: A few nights ago he went out to his crib to shake some corn. In reaching for an ear something bit him on the hand. At first he paid no attention to it, but when it grabbed his hand the second time Uncle Bill yelled out, "Sarah, (his wife) I am snake bit. With much I am the old gentleman reached the house, and while he was drinking the camphor as rapidly as he could swallow, two or three carried a light to search for the snake. When, lo and behold, it was an old setting hen.

Col. Farrow is having some repairs made on his buildings up at Porter. A good crowd of visitors are already there enjoying the fresh mountain air.

Some one has been stealing U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle's corn down at his farm. It would be funny if they are making liquor and will get caught by him later on.

Mr. Ashley is still in Georgia and was here the other day making preparations to buy more timber land. He has already disposed of what he purchased in this county some time ago.

NOTICE.—Prof. J. W. Boyd has for sale some nice furniture left in his hands by Prof. Callaway. The lot includes beds and bedsteads, mattresses, dressers, chairs, a large walnut wardrobe, etc., etc. See Prof. Boyd, who will sell this furniture cheap. 2t

We are told that Col. Farrow, of the Queen of the Mountains, remarked that he could take the Consolidated Co.'s large hotel here and have it full of visitors in twenty days. This should encourage some one to lease it, for the Colonel knows what he is talking about and can realize a good thing when he sees it.

Half of 1905 is gone today and we hope that those indebted to us will come in and settle up. We will do likewise if we are indebted to a single person. Isn't this fair? Our birth day is on the 12th day of July and we want to begin to see whether we will have money enough to "put the big pot in the little one" and have a big time generally. However, we do not mean to suspend THE NUGGET for a week, like some of the weekly editors did their papers in order to attend the Press Convention.

Harlie Ricketts, mentioned last week as having enticed Capt. Ingersoll's office and taken money, and Mrs. Steed's watch, was released last Friday. The Captain taking into consideration the boy's age, let the warrant be dismissed by the defendant paying the cost. Soon after he was given his freedom a lad remarked that a boy could do as they pleased. We would advise all thinking this to dismiss it from their minds and take warning, for the next boy may not get into the hands of a man with as tender and sympathetic heart as Capt. Ingersoll. We have but few men like him in Dahlonega, if any.

Mr. W. D. Wheelchel, the clever and accommodating agent at the narrow gauge depot in Gainesville, spent a day or so in Dahlonega last week, in company with his beautiful and accomplished daughter, Miss Emma. Mr. Wheelchel was up in the interest of his company and made the trip pay well, as everybody here likes to do business with this gentleman every time an opportunity is offered. Davis attended college here in 1874. Only a few of his schoolmates are here now. He looked them up and spent as much time as possible in talking over the days of long ago.

Tom McGee has returned from Gainesville and is behind his father's counter again selling goods.

Uncle Bony Tank was up from Auraria last Tuesday. He said all the fiddlers from his section would be here on the 22nd. There is a lot of them down there and some good ones too.

The colored presiding elder does not seem to be in good health as we are informed by the party where he took supper on Saturday that he only chambered eleven biscuits. It may be necessary to reduce the acreage of cotton but not wheat.

Our office was visited on Monday by Messrs. H. H. Parks, H. C. Marks and J. F. Colby, of Ord, Nebraska, all interested in the Bunker Hill Gold mine. Mr. Colby has been here before and will return again on the 18th of July. We like to see men visit as often as possible an enterprise in which they are interested. It proves that they mean business. And another thing is, they put on no style.

A gentleman while here a few days ago from Chattanooga, said that Mr. Adams who blew in so much money a few years ago belonging to a company, would not even admit that he had ever been to Dahlonega. When he first came here he was a great Sunday school man, but later on when he began to throw away other people's cash and drive a fine span of horses the speed was so great that he could not stop at the church door during a big revival.

Mr. E. S. Vickery, a commercial drummer from Atlanta who attended college here years ago, was registered at Hall's Villa this week. While here his memory went back to his schoolboy days, when we used to run him while we were marshal for some little mischief he had done, more for fun and to see how fast we could run than for any other purpose. We used to enjoy those midnight runs same as the boys but old father time has brought about a change of program in our pleasures now.

Rev. Mr. Marchman, the pastor of the Methodist church here is certainly a faithful servant of the Lord. He goes right along in the discharge of his duties without receiving the ill will of a single person. The church is not in as prosperous condition as it ought to be though it is not his fault. Some time ago the church elected a certain member an official, who served the devil more than he did the Lord by slyly selling intoxicants to boys, fitting their souls for hell faster than the preachers could prepare them for the other world, and it will take some time for the church to overcome it, though the devil's agent is gone now. The pastor nor other members didn't know of his conduct at the time. This shows that no church should be too hasty in putting new comers in official positions.

Did you hear anything drop last Sunday night? If so you may want to know what it was, and as it is our purpose to give the readers all the news, we will tell you. It was that big footed negro preacher we were telling you about last week. He had returned with two other preachers and while sleeping at Arthur Singleton's got to dreaming about being after a chicken, fell from the floor and lay there fast asleep until he was aroused by the voice of his bed mate, the presiding elder, who said "come up to me." Believing it to be coming from a higher power he arose after hesitating a while, because he wanted another bait of chicken before leaving. When he got up and realized that it was the elder calling and breakfast could not be served sooner than six or seven hours, the sadness it brought about can better be realized than explained. The next morning after breakfast, not being willing to ride to Gainesville in a hack carrying the United States mail, the two hired a nice two horse rig and departed in fine style, leaving Bro. Gordon to see what he could gather up in the way of eatables and money.

Mining News.

The Singleton mine has been paying all along and continues to get better.

Mr. Strauch is still at Auraria. He is forming a German company to work the Hix mine.

Moore and McDonald are doing well with their placer diggings. The recent clean up was both profitable and satisfactory.

A pin breaking about the Briar Patch dredge last week caused a delay of a few days until another one can be procured.

Mr. A. E. Rogers, of Boston, owner of the Battle Branch mine near Auraria, and its Superintendent, Mr. Zeb Summerow, were in the city this week. Work has already commenced at this mine. A large amount of gold has been found there. It lays in pockets. Mr. John Hockenhaul found one year ago containing eighteen thousand pennyweights.

Mr. Kiser, of the lower Etowah, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega and informed us while here that Mr. VanSyckle was expected in at any moment. The gentleman, it seems has been delayed longer than he expected in winding up some business before he started, desiring to do this so he can give his mining interests here his personal attention for a longer period when he comes.

Things are looking very bright down at the Barlow. The vein is seven feet thick and seventy-five feet broad. None of the ore has ever come under $3.50 per ton and has milled as high as $7.00 per ton. The ore has to be hauled to the mill in wagons and taken out by steam, making it pretty expensive. Later on cars will be used, in conveying the ore to the mill, and the pump and air drills run by electricity. This will greatly reduce the expenses and make the mine more profitable. They commenced working two shifts at this mine last Monday.

The Crown Mountain mill has run a few hours only since our last issue. Some days none at all. But little headway is being made in the shaft, as only one shift is run and it takes about half the time each day to mend the pump and get the water from the shaft that runs in during the night. In other words wasting time and money, being the worst management ever known here yet, and getting deeper in debt every day, not only injuring the mine but the country. A lot of the pipe line in and about the cuts is being taken out and some of the best shipped to Gainesville. For what purpose we do not know.

The letter from one of our patrons in Baltimore, published below shows that parties before investing their money in mining stock or in anything else should first see that the people they propose to deal with are reliable. The McClusky is in Hall county and here is what the writer says about the transaction concerning it: "I received THE NUGGET today and was glad to read it and receive the information regarding the McClusky mine. I sent a letter today to Mr. H. D. Jaquish, of Gainesville, Ga., its former owner, and hope to receive some information from him. Perhaps it will be of interest to you to know that I sent a letter a few weeks ago to the Mining and Development Co., of New York, for information regarding the McClusky mine from whom I bought 1000 shares of the McClusky stock. That very letter was returned to me today by the postoffice with the face stamped fraudulent. "Business of address declared fraudulent by order of Postoffice Department, New York, N. Y., May 15." I certainly hope that both the Etowah and the McClusky will turn out all right in the end and make a profit." This same company had something to do with the lower Etowah, Lumpkin county, in selling stock, which might have retarded the progress of work down that way. It is now in the hands of Mr. VanSyckle, of New Jersey, who seems to be very slow in getting to work.

Breaking it Gently.

The greatest error that a father can make is to omit to note the year that is at the top of the current almanac and to forget that his sons grow older each year. The father who thinks his nineteen-year-old son is still a child is liable to get a shock.

"Beg pardon, father," says the lad who wishes to break the news gently, "but do you mind if I bring a friend in to supper this evening?"

"I'll think it over, my boy."

"For a little music."

"Does your friend sing?"

"Has a beautiful voice," says the lad enthusiastically, "like a nightingale."

"Oh!" with incredulity. "What age?"

"About my own age, father."

"Well, you can bring your friend; but, mind, it's to be made a precedent. I don't want the house overrun with them. And no staying late."

"She'll go back to her mother's at 10."

"She!"

"It's a young lady I've been fond of for some time, father," blurts out the lad, "and we are going to get married soon!"—London Star.

The Saddest Sight.

"What is the most distressing thing you ever saw in a court room?" was the question propounded to a group of lawyers recently, as they sat together in the office of one of their number. One told of hearing a judge pass sentence of death on a woman; another told of the scene between a mother and son as she bid her boy good-bye for the last time before he started to serve a ten year's sentence in the penitentiary, and as the question went round the circle each related a story of court scenes. Almost the last one in the group said: "Gentlemen, the saddest thing I ever witnessed in a court room was when a healthy, strong, handsome man and woman, with a group of bright, intelligent boys and girls, their children, appeared before a circuit judge, the one plaintiff, the other defendant, in a divorce suit. The look of distress on the faces of those innocent children as they sat and listened to the criminalizations and reprimands of their parents, intent on breaking up what had been a happy home, was the saddest sight I ever witnessed."—Kansas City Journal.

Not So Wonderful.

Tonist (in retired village)—So that's the oldest inhabitant? One hundred and four years old? No wonder you're proud of him. Native—I dunno. He ain't done nothing in this yer place 'cept grow old, and it's took him a sight o' time to do that.

Both Sides of a Question.

"There are many things you can't do with money," said the man who affects philosophy.

"Yes," answered Dustin Stax, "but there are a whole lot more things you can't do without it."—Washington Star.

One Advantage.

Green—This paper tells of a man who recently married his aunt. Brown—He's in luck. Green—How so? Brown—Being his own uncle now, he will be able to wear his watch regularly.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Sending Her Right.

Mrs. Housekeeper—Jane, are the eggs boiling? Jane (dumbly)—Most assuredly not, ma'am. I may safely say, however, that the water is in which they are immersed.—Pittsburgh Press.

Be Kind.

Woman of the House (handing him a plate of cold scraps)—You look like a man who has seen better days. Fanny Greets—Yes'm, thankie, I have. There was a time, ma'am, w'en I would have blushed to hand such a layout as this to a dog.—Chicago Tribune.

Reasonable.

Church Warden—Would you assist us, good sir, in sending a missionary to the continent? Mr. Goreau—No, ma'am, I'm vegetarian. But I'll assist you to send them some easily digested cereals.—Puck.

Lived on Water.

The Trumpet—Once lived on water, lady, for six months. The Lady—Can't look like it. How did you manage it? The Trumpet—I was a sufferer.

Great and formidable among men is the power of laughter. No man is proud against its spell.—Leopold.

Country Telephones.

The rural telephones are making a changed in farm life, says the New York Tribune. A Shel by county (Kan.) farmer got into trouble in town the other day. Later he was called up over his rural telephone and informed that a warrant had been issued for him and that he might consider himself under arrest, and he was asked by the officer if he would come into town or would he have to come after him? The farmer asked the nature of the charge, and was told that it was disturbance and that the fine and costs would be $14. The farmer telephoned back that he was too busy to quit work, but would plead guilty and send the money by the rural carrier the next day, and he did. Up in New York state the hired man eloped with a farmer's daughter. Before going he took the precaution to cut the rural telephone wires, so there was nothing left for the father to do but wait till the wires were repaired and telephone his blessing.

Bad On Whiskers.

An effort is being made by the Iowa state board of health to have all bearded doctors run the lawn mower over their faces, that they may go whiskerless for their pleasant task of scattering pills where they will do the most good. Of course this does not apply to lady physicians or to men who have not boycotted the barber shops, but only to those men whose faces are adorned with the festive bunch of lilacs. The reason of this stab, or, rather, cut at personal liberty, is that microbes have a way of traveling around in the doctors' whiskers to save car fare, jumping on when the doctor is busy mixing some drops for a patient and carelessly alighting when he makes a call at some place where they think they would like to board for a week.

Thus it will be seen that the whiskers are convicted not because they are guilty in themselves, but on account of the company they keep.—2x.

APPLICATION FOR DISMISSION.

Georgia, Lumpkin County. Whereas, W. J. Burt, administrator of John P. Corn, deceased, represented to the court in his petition, duly filed and entered on record, that he has fully administered John P. Corn's estate. This is therefore to cite all persons concerned, kindred and creditors, to show cause, if any they can, why said administrator should not be discharged from his administration, and receive letters of dismission on the first Monday in July, 1905.
